EVERYTHING THERE BUT THE THRONGS

Rain Keeps Down Opening Attendance at the Big Exposition.

There was nothing in the situation at the Fort Wayne Driving park early today to encourage the officials of the Fort Wayne fair or any of the people who had bought concessions and fixed up their tents, but some consolation was derived from the fact that W. S. Palmer, who forecasts for this vicinity, had promised clearing skies for the second day of the exhibition.

Although the fine mile track is one of the most noted in the country for its happy faculty of drying out quickly, the steady downpour that started some time during the night and continued early in the day, offered little opportunity for the exercise of this function and there was no prospect that the big bill of hippodrome races and motorcycle events carded for the opening day would be run off and the management had not decided just what to do with this portion of the week's entertainment.

There is a strong possibility that it will be given some time as an added attraction to the list that is already full enough to satisfy anybody inclined to be reasonable in such matters.

Baby Show All Set Up.

Dr. Lydia DeVilbiss was all prepared early in the day to receive the entries in the better babies contest that she has charge of and was laboring under difficulties that would probably have produced swear words if she had been a physician of the so-called stern sex.

As it was she contented herself with those little ebullitions common to women who are dissatisfied with the state of the weather or anything else.

It was proposed this afternoon to examine all of the babies that were presented for the first class and every precaution against exposure had been taken. The tent was warm and dry, there were heaters and other conveniences ready to insure the health of the little fellows submitted for examination.

There are still some vacancies in the classes from two to three and from four to five years of age and the management hopes they will be filled before the time for examinations.

Attendance Was Cut Down.

Naturally the attendance expected the first day fell way below the calculations of the officers because rain and county fairs are not to be reconciled, but at that there were some people who wanted to see the driving park under dripping skies and they were there to see it.

It was interesting. Bundled in their tents and many of them forced to take to their beds to keep warm the concession people were making the best of it. Others, hardened to the weather and used to looking adversity square in the face sat about and smoked their pipes and hoped for better things tomorrow.

Most of them are optimists and they are accustomed to taking things as they are sent and there was not much complaint.

PRESIDENT IS BACK AT DESK

Wilson Returns to Washington from Brief Stay at Cornish.

WORK MOVES ALONG

Washington, Sept. 16.—President Wilson returned from Cornish, N. H., today on a train that was an hour late, and was driven at once to the white house.

The president returned to his desk to find the administration currency bill well on its way through the house, with the democratic majority holding it firm against attack so far and the tariff differences between the house and senate well on the way to settlement. Some of his advisers thought the Underwood-Simmons bill might come before him for signature by next Monday.

Outwardly the most pressing question in the Mexican situation was whether a congratulatory message should be dispatched to Mexico City on the occasion of the 103rd anniversary of Mexican independence and to whom it had been addressed. Some officials were of the opinion that such a move would in a measure mean recognition of the Huerta government.

The white house had recovered from its summer renovation, the winter decorations were in place and blazing hearth fires greeted the president's callers today.

The first thing the president did was to receive several hundred delegates to the international congress of refrigeration. Secretary Bryan had a conference on Mexico while Secretary McAdoo had an agreement to talk over the collectorship of the port of Boston.

STEWART GIRL IS IN SERIOUS STATE

WARNER BOY LOW

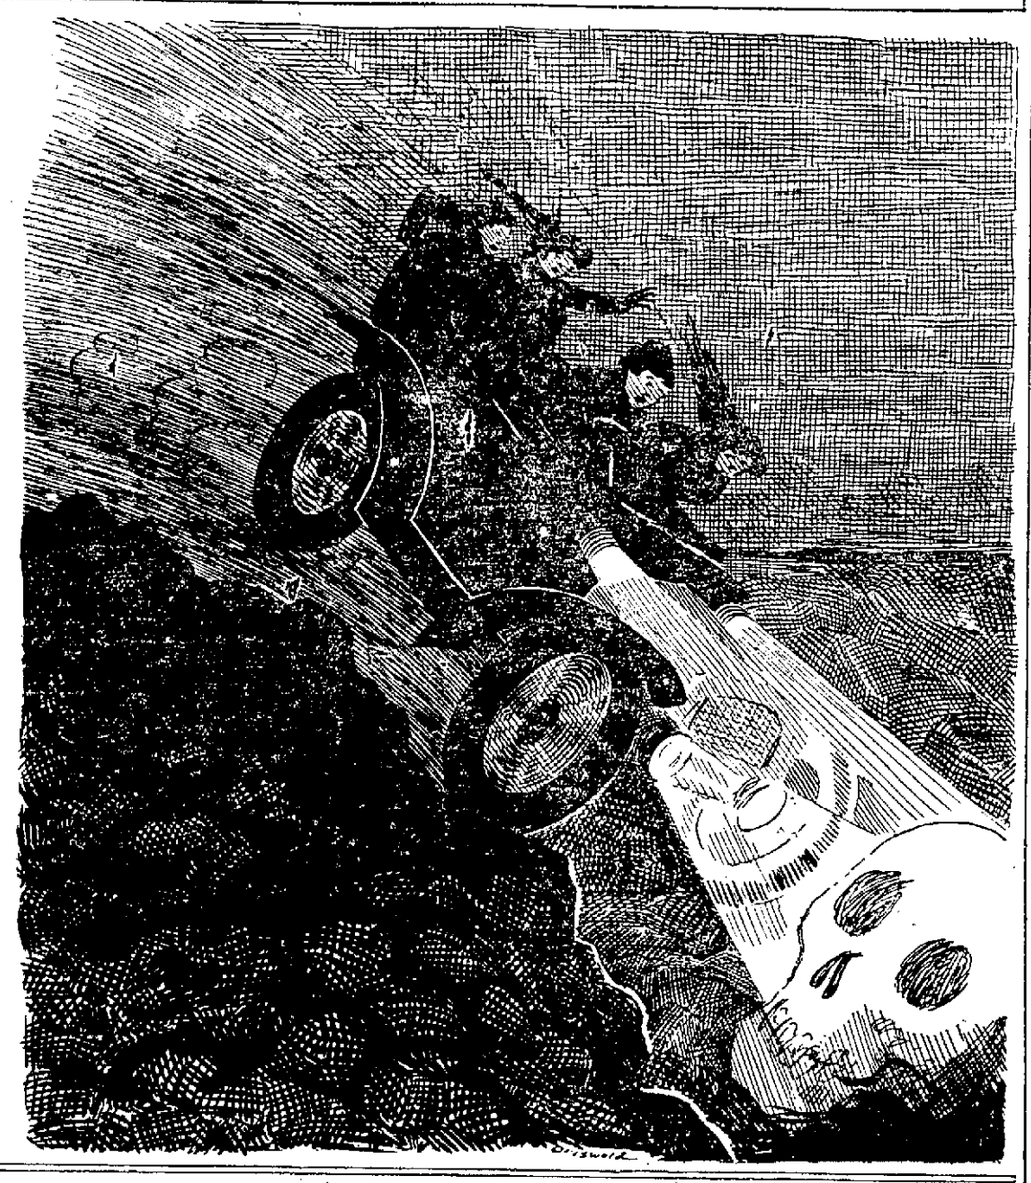
Hazel Stewart, the young woman who was badly injured in the automobile disaster Sunday morning, is still in an unconscious condition at the Lutheran hospital and it is said that her chances for recovery are very poor. The fact that she remains unconscious leads to the belief that she is suffering from a concussion of the brain. For a short time this morning she regained consciousness, but nothing definite concerning her chances for recovery can be said at this time. Very little change is shown since Monday.

Jack Lindemann, the plumber, the fourth member of the auto party, is getting along nicely and it is believed that he will be able to leave the hospital in a week.

Warner Boy in Bad Shape.

It was started this afternoon at the hospital that Theodore Warner, the 8-year-old boy who was run down Sunday by an automobile driven by R. C. Morton of Van Wert, is in a critical condition. The boy was internally injured, and grave fears are held for his recovery. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Warner, of Swan, Ind., and with his parents was visiting in the city last Sunday. He was running across the street behind an East Creighton car on Creighton avenue, near John street, when run down by the machine.

Who Will Be the Next?



HAILS BANANA AS CIVILIZER

John Barrett Would Shoo Dove of Peace from Its Perch.

PROTEST ON TARIFF

Washington, Sept. 16.—Shooting the dove of peace from off its perch, John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American union, today installed the banana as the emblem of international tranquility, at least so far as Latin-America is concerned. In a letter addressed to the senate and house conferees on the tariff bill protesting against the proposed duty on the fruit, he portrayed the humble banana as a powerful civilizing influence.

"Only a person like myself," Mr. Barrett sets forth, "who has been intimately associated with recent history and development of Latin-American countries and especially those bordering on the Caribbean sea and Gulf of Mexico, appreciates the mighty change that has been wrought in the political, economic, agricultural and social conditions of these countries by the growth of the banana industry.

"The building up of the banana business has done more than any other individual influence, material or political, to bring about conditions of prosperity, sanitation, health and peace in these low-lying coast lines of the Caribbean and Gulf of Mexico which, previous to the banana era, were largely given up to wild jungles, malaria, shiftless peoples and haunts of insipient revolutions."

The dove of peace, it was said by one of the conferees after he had read Mr. Barrett's appeal, hereafter should carry a banana in its beak instead of the useless, if ornamental twig of myrtle. Especially was this change appropriate, in the members' opinion, since Mr. Barrett declared that the banana "will do more to advance prosperity and preserve peace in the states where it is grown than any other agricultural or commercial influence.

WILL SHARE EQUALLY.

Brothers and Sisters to Get Wealth of "Big Tim" Sullivan.

New York, Sept. 16.—Congressman "Big Tim" Sullivan's wealth will be shared equally by his brothers and sisters. His will, filed for probate today, divides the property among Mrs. Margaret Hickey, Mrs. Mary Ann Summers, Patrick H. Sullivan and Lawrence Mulligan, a half brother. At one time the Tammany leader was said to be worth more than $2,000,000. Since his illness it is said that his estate had dwindled.

CRIME NEST IN PRIEST'S CASE

EVIDENCE OF COUNTERFEITING

Police Make a Sensational Find in Ransacking the Schmidt Rooms.

New York, Sept. 16.—Stripping from New York's river murder its mysteries the police today discovered a nest of crime, feathered, they claim, by the Rev. Hans Schmidt, confessed slayer of Anna Aumuller and his pal, Dr. Ernest A. Muret, dentist by day, by night alleged counterfeiter.

Muret is under arrest on a technical charge of having in his possession a pistol in violation of the Sullivan law. He was arrested early this morning after detectives ransacking Schmidt's apartments, had uncovered evidence to show that Schmidt was a counterfeiter.

This evidence led them to a flat, rented by a man under the name of George Miller, in which were found all essentials to the counterfeiters' craft. (After detectives had placed Muret under arrest, they took into custody as a material witness the maid employed at his dental office.

Girl Protests Innocence.

She said she was Bertha Zech and protested that she knew nothing of the crime of which her employer was suspected. The police, busy with Muret, had found little time to ply her with questions this morning, but expected to pry from her during the day whatever she might know concerning the counterfeiting.

With Muret locked up detectives set about searching his office. There they found in addition to such equipment as a dentist uses in practicing his profession a revolver and eleven kinds of obstetrical instruments, several surgical saws and bone forceps. The finding of these instruments coupled with the fact that Muret and Schmidt had been cronies for some months, caused the detectives to press with renewed vigor the CLUB WOMAN GETS WEALTH OF MATERIAL FOR PAPER.

Hebron, Ind., Sept. 16.—Mrs. A. R. McAlpin wrote Congressman J. B. Peterson to send her government publications on immigration so that she could prepare a paper to read before her club. About fifty volumes, weighing 300 pounds, arrived here today by parcel post. The mail carrier was forced to hire a dray to deliver them.

WORKMAN FINDS GEMS IN STREET

London Laborer Picks Up $650,000 Necklace Stolen from Mails.

WILL GET BIG REWARD

London, Sept. 16.—A workman this morning found on the sidewalk practically the entire pearl necklace valued at $650,000 which was stolen on July 16 while in transit by mail from Paris to London.

The man was going to work in Highbury, a northern district of London, when he noticed the pearls lying in a heap. On picking them up he found there were 58. He took them to the nearest police station where they were at once recognized as part of the famous necklace from which only one pearl is now missing.

On September 2, five men, three Englishmen and two Austrians, were arrested when trying to dispose of some of the pearls in London. They are believed by the police to belong to a notorious international gang of thieves.

A reward of $50,000 which was offered for the return of the jewels will probably go entirely to the workman. The necklace, said to be the most valuable in the world, was in transit between two dealers when stolen. Rumor indicated that it was destined for Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt.

The workman who found the jewels informed the police that they were carelessly wrapped in a piece of tissue paper. He said he first passed them by as he thought the package was merely a ball of crumpled waste paper. He kicked it with his foot and felt something inside and then decided to take a closer look, with the result that he found the package contained a number of large pearls.

The necklace was originally composed of sixty-one graduated pearls weighing altogether 1,250 grains. The center pearl weighed over 47 grains. The string of pearls was fastened by a diamond snap of rare workmanship. The robbery of the necklace from the registered mail was carried out in a very clever manner. The postal seals on the original package when it was delivered to the London dealer did not appear to have been disturbed in any way, but when it was opened it was found to contain instead of the jewels only a number of pieces of French sugar.

OPENING STATEMENTS MADE.

New Albany Man and Wife on Trial for Murder at Jeffersonville.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Sept. 16.—Opening statements in the trial of Armstead Dixon and his wife, Ella, charged with the murder of Leonard Sanders, were begun in the Clark circuit court today, the jury having been selected yesterday. Dixon and Sanders occupied the two sides of a tenement house in New Albany. They disputed whether the door should be left open or closed and, it is alleged, Dixon shot and killed Sanders. Dixon's wife is said to have urged the shooting.

CHATTANOOGA IS WARM IN WELCOME

Southern City Extends Its Hospitality to G. A. R. Veterans.

PARADE IS TOMORROW

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 16.—Heavy clouds hovered over Chattanooga today, the second of the forty-seventh annual encampment of the G. A. R. aand allied organizations. The welcome extended visiting veterans by citizens at a reception last night will be supplemented tonight when addresses of welcome will be delivered by Gov. Ben W. Hooper, of Tennessee; William D. Atchley, commander of the department of Tennessee; Mayor T. C. Thompson, of Chattanooga, and others.

A feature of the encampment today was the reunion of the veterans who participated in the battle of Chickamauga. These veterans passed the morning in tours over the battlefield.

Opening sessions were held today by the following organizations with the G. A. R.: National Association of Army Nurses, Women's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, National Association of Veterans, National Association of Union Ex-Prisoners of War, National Association of Civil War Musicians, Loyal Legion U. S. Veterans.

The veterans' parade will be the feature tomorrow.

The challenge for a foot race recently issued by Col. J. L. Smith, aged 69, of Detroit, Mich., a union veteran, has been accepted by Private M. Wolf, aged 80, a local confederate veteran. The race will take place at Chamberlain field Thursday afternoon, according to announcement made today. One hundred yards is the distance.

When Colonel Smith issued his challenge he also was quoted as claiming the veteran championship of the United States for any distance. Three other union veterans have announced they will contest for championship honors with Colonel Smith in a three-mile race. This race also will be run Thursday afternoon. These veterans are George W. Howe, aged 70, Port Huron, Mich.; Col. S. G. Barnes, aged 68, Pittsburg, and William A. Heinshon, aged 69, Cleveland.

EXPERT TAKES A RAP AT MEASURE

WILL CALL OTHERS

Washington, Sept. 16.—One of the perplexing and important problems to fall on the managers of the new banking system proposed by the administration bill will be the curtailment of business activities and the restraining of credits at critical moments according to Prof. O. M. W. Sprague, of Harvard university, who testified today before the senate banking committee.

"Had these federal banks been in existence the last year," he said, "they would have been besieged with demands from business for more money and an extension of discounts. As it is I think the moderate liquidation business has had to go through the last six months has been of very great advantage and has greatly strengthened the business community."

Prof. Sprague was the first of a number of experts who will be heard by the committee during the next few days. The plan of the bill for replacing national bank notes with new treasury notes was criticized adversely by Prof. Sprague. He advocated a change that would make government bonds security for these notes as they are now for national bank currency.

THAW AGAIN WINS POINT

Judge Aldrich Suspends Proceedings Without Quashing Writ.

EFFECTIVE CHECK TO EXTRADITION

Crowds at Littleton Cheer Thaw as He Appears on Streets.

Littletown, N. H. Sept. 16.—Harry Kendall Thaw fugitive from Matteawan, won a victory in the United States district court here today when Judge Aldrich indefinitely suspended a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus obtained by the Thaw lawyers. This means that Thaw will have a federal writ to check his immediate return to New York state in the event Gov. Felker orders his extradition after the hearing to be held at Concord.

William Travers Jerome specially deputized to bring about Thaw's return to the asylum, tried to block the postponement on the ground that the writ had been obtained as a matter of expediency. He produced an affidavit of a newspaper man, quoting Thaw's counsel as saying this, but he was unwilling to press the matter for counsel for Thaw had assured the court that the application for the writ had been entirely regular.

Mr. Jerome Hesitates.

"What do you propose to do then?" insisted the judge.

Jerome hesitated.

"The immediate question," continued the court is whether the proceedings shall go on or be suspended. It is the judgment of the court that a suspension would not menace the interests of either side and in view of the fact that the governor hesitates to proceed with the extradition hearing until the status of this matter is assured I suspend it. It is not adjourned but suspended and I suggest that either side notify me within six days when they are prepared to go on with it."

Thaw sat with his eyes riveted on the court. His lawyers were grinning. He was remanded back to the joint custody of Sheriff Drew, of Coos county, who arrested him, after his recent deportation from Canada, and United States Marshal Shuler.

Extradition Hearing Data.

Counsel for both sides after talking with the governor by telephone agreed that the extradition hearing would not be held until Tuesday, Sept. 23. The lawyers then went into conference to decide where to hold the fugitive meanwhile.

Crowds, packing Main street, in front of the court building, cheered Thaw as he was driven to a hotel for dinner.

In an open discussion with Mr. Jerome after announcing the suspension of the hearing, Judge Aldrich said that search of the statutes had failed to reveal to him any law under which a man in Thaw's position, a lunatic charged with a crime, could be extradited.

Chats Through Car Windows.

Thaw remained in the smoking car during the trip from Colebrook. Crowds greeted him at every station. Sitting by an open window, he made it a point to lean out and talk with the idlers.

A two horse carriage conveyed Thaw and his guards and lawyers to the court building; the marshal's quarters were just off the judge's chambers. Thaw was shut off from interviewers and seemed glad to rest after his journey.

After hearing arguments the court suspended proceedings. No date was set for a future hearing. This was a victory for Thaw since the New York authorities were anxious to have the writ quashed.

Marshal Nute and Sheriff Drew were appointed to continue as custodians of the fugitive with instructions to let him confer freely with counsel.

Mr. Shurtleff, for Thaw, pointing out that the hearing in the Thaw case was

VOTERS SHOULD DEMAND A REASON FOR SUPPORTING A PARTISAN TICKET

(By the Non-Partisan City Central Committee.)

To the Voters of the City of Fort Wayne:

Let the opposition to the non-partisan movement give you one reason that your common sense can accept why you should not join together to choose your local government. You want good order, material improvements and efficient service to certain of your daily necessities. Their is but one way to get these things at their best and cheapest. That way is not partisan—is not democratic and is not republican. It is the way of common sense, by which you voters unite to choose a government that will answer to you.

Partisan government answers to the party. It answers with favors and rewards—spoils and place and petty honor—and to get away with its ruinous game depends upon its adroitness and the ease with which you voters, blinded by the passions of politics, can be hoodwinked.

You cannot get away from the truth, verified by countless municipal experiences in the cities of America, that partisan government is a burden upon the pockets of the taxpayers. You need not go beyond the rim of your own city to find the proof of this that partisan government costs you money for which no return whatever is given. And there is a greater cost than money, for it hurts—hurts you, hurts the city, hurts your wife, hurts your children. Taxpayers who vote to maintain partisan government in the city, vote out of their own pockets the money to pay the difference between public service that is cheaper because it is well done, and public service that costs more because poorly done.

Who among us all owes to his party any such debt as that he is bound to support and approve incapacity, unfitness, blundering, waste or moral delinquency in his party's representatives in municipal office? Do you owe it to your party to bear a needless burden of taxation to enable partisan organizations to fight over municipal government, settle nothing but the question of spoils and make inefficient rule inevitable? That is the meaning and consequence of partisan government in cities.

Demand of the opposition to non-partisan government that it come into the court of common sense and show cause why it should not be routed and defeated in the coming election. City government is very directly your affair. Treat it that way when you vote

No Information Wanted

With characteristic politeness.

ARCHIE MCREA, porter at the interurban union station, has a position which enables him to be polite and helpful in many ways. Women and children, especially, when traveling, appreciate such attention as will make them comfortable and keep them from getting mixed up when errors are so easy to make at a station where so many lines center at the same station and where there is a hustle and bustle of more or less confusion.

Recognizing these conditions, the porter is ever watchful of opportunities to do a good turn. The other day he noticed a colored lady scanning the large timetable on the wall of the waiting room and then turn to the large map on the wall. She seemed to be puzzled about something. Archie waited a moment to see if the traveler could get from the timetable and the map the information for which she sought, and then, with characteristic politeness, he approached and said:

"Lady, is they any info'mation ah kin give yo'?"

The traveler turned and looked at Archie. Her gaze went deep into Archie's eyes. And then she spoke.

"If they was," said she—and her look became just a little more piercing, if possible—"if they was, Ah would have asked yo'."

Whereupon she continued to examine the timetable and the wall map. And Archie faded into the back yard where he begged Ed Longfield to send him out a glass of icewate

LEGISLATORS ARE BARRED.

Cannot Get Indiana Appointment at San Francisco Exposition.

Indianapolis, Sept. 16.—All members of the last Indiana legislature who sought the appointment as executive commissioner to superintend the construction of an Indiana building at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco were put out of running when the Panama-Pacific exposition committee at a meeting in the state house yesterday decided it would be unlawful for any member of the assembly to be appointed to a lucrative position established by that legislature. Among those who sought the place are State Senators J. J. Netterville and Oscar Ratts and Representatives Joseph H. Stahl and John M. Massalink.

A committee composed of Lieutenant Governor O'Neill, Senator Wood and Representative Homer L. CRIME NEST IN PRIEST'S CASE search for something which might directly connect the dentist with the murder of Anna Aumuller.

A strong physical resemblance between Muret and Schmidt led the detectives to question the dentist as to his possible relationship to the priest. Muret claimed there was none. Inspector Fauret, in charge of the detective bureau, was of different mind. "The foreheads are the same," he said. "The eyes are the same. The noses are the same. The ears the same. If these two men are not brothers they are closely related."

The Zeck woman was discharged after a brief examination.

Detectives questioning Muret found that in addition to a definite knowledge of dentistry, photography, surgery and printing their prisoner possessed a fair working knowledge of law. In his desk were found a number of physician's cards bearing the same inscription as those found Sunday morning in the apartments of Schmidt.

Made By An Expert.

The copper plate from which the spurious bills were struck was made, in the opinion of detectives, by an expert engraver. The maker may have been the priest or the dentist, but detectives believe that it was neither. They sought such an expert today as an accomplice. The bills were imitations of $20 yellow backs. Schmidt's pretentions to insanity, in the opinion of Coroner Fernberg, have been dealt a death blow by the baring of his record as a counterfeiter. "Father Schmidt impresses me as an unscrupulous man with a master mind," Mr. Fernberg said. "Think of a man who is able to qualify for the priesthood, who is a forger of great skill, mechanic enough to coin money, who might have dabbled in medicine and who had the ability to commit the crime Schmidt is charged with. That indicates no ordinary mind."

William Flynn, chief of the United States secret service, reached New York today and began an investigation of Schmidt's and Muret's counterfeiting methods and plant. Muret told the police he was born in Chicago. Framed in his office was a membership certificate issued at Chicago Dec. 23, 1911, by the Dental Protective Association of the United States of America. When arraigned today on the technical charge of having a pistol in his possession Muret was held in $5,000 bail for trial. He waived examination.

Rent Receipt as Clue.

After the finding of the copper counterfeiting plate in Schmidt's room the detectives ransacked the priest's personal papers and discovered a receipted bill for rent having been paid by a "George Miller," for an apartment at 516 West 134th street, and there the detectives allege they found a complete outfit for the manufacture of photographic prints such as might be used in making counterfeit bills. Here also the detectives told of having found the half burned parts of impressions of $10 gold certificates. Examination disclosed that they may have been printed from the plate found earlier in the night in the rooms of Schmidt at the rectory of St. Joseph's church, where he was acting as a priest at the time of his arrest for the murder of Anna Aumuller.

From sources which Inspector Fauret refused to divulge he states that he had traced the "George Miller" whose name was signed to the rent receipt to the office of Dr. Muret, 301 St. Nicholas avenue. In the meantime Mrs. Mary Bowye, owner of the apartment at the 134th street address, went with detectives to the dentist's office, where he also lived and positively identified him as "George Miller."

Sorry He Met Priest.

In reply to questions put to him by Inspector Fauret, Dr. Muret is alleged to have said that he had been in counterfeiting operations with Schmidt. In the same breath he cried that he was sorry he had ever met the priest. After his arrival at police headquarters, Muret answered questions put to him by the inspector with apparent candor and when he failed to hear at times, he politely asked that the question be repeated. On many occasions, he said, Schmidt had visited the 134th street apartment in his clerical garb, covering his Roman collar with his hand until he had entered the railway. From tenants in the same building Inspector Fauret said that he learned that Muret, Schmidt and Bertha Zeck often reached the apartment as early as 8 o'clock in the morning, remaining frequently until 10 at night, but that they never spent the night there.

The last rent for the apartment was paid on August 25th last when, the police say the landlady received $22 from Schmidt. On this same date Schmidt paid a $5 deposit on the Bradhurst avenue apartment where he had confessed that he killed Anna Aumuller.

Resemblance to Schmidt.

As Dr. Muret sat in the inspector's office it was remarked that he bore a strange resemblance to Schmidt and Inspector Fauret asked him if he was related to Schmidt. He replied that he was not. Both men have a queer cast to their eyes and each has a prominent nose, that of Muret being a bit crooked, as from injury. In the library of Dr. Muret at his office-home in St. Nicholas avenue, the police found a large number of books dealing with photography and printing, also catalogues from paper houses and printing jobbers. Many of those books were carted to police headquarters, as were the photographic apparatus found in the 134th street flat. Among other things found at both the office of Dr. Muret and Schmidt's rooms were photographs of Bertha Zeck, but in Dr. Muret's apartment also was found a set of photographs of the priest in street and clerical clothes.

While Schmidt slept in his cell in the Tombs, a few blocks away, ignorant of the arrest of Muret, the detectives questioned the dentist for hours this morning concerning his relations with the confessed murderer of Anna Aumuller. Schmidt. Inspector Fauret declared, had not been questioned about Muret and had not given him the lead that led to the latter's arrest. After finishing with Muret the detectives planned to question Bertha Zeck, who was being held in the inspector's office. And later today, it was announced, the police would confront Muret with an eleven year old boy, who has told the detectives that he saw a tall man accompany Schmidt to and from the Bradhurst avenue flat on

BUCK SENTIMENT STEADILY GROWS

Many Classed as Doubtful Are Now Open in Favor of Non-Partisanism.

G. O. P. MEN WILL MEET

A steadily growing sentiment in favor of the non-partisan movement and Charles H. Buck for mayor is reported in every precinct where committeemen are busy taking a poll. It is shown by the poll books that men of all political belief are affiliating with the movement, and those engaged in canvassing the different parts of the city say that men who at first were placed in the doubtful list are now open in their declarations favoring the candidacy of Mr. Buck and other candidates on the citizens' non-partisan ticket. This is the first time that Fort Wayne has ever made a united effort to divorce politics from city government, and the idea seems to find support of sufficient strength to bring nothing but encouraging reports to non-partisan headquarters.

Republicans to Meet.

Judge Benjamin W. Skelton, chairman of the republican city central committee, and a candidate on the straight republican ticket for city judge, has notified his committeemen that a meeting will be held this evening at headquarters in the Pixley-Long block. Several thousand pamphlets containing the keynote address of William H. LaTourette, the republican candidate for mayor, have been printed and are being distributed broadcast.

Socialists Meet.

A meeting of Tenth ward socialists was held Monday evening at the corner of East Creighton avenue and Gay street, and the present campaign was discussed in all its details. The Tenth ward socialists say they expect to elect their candidate for council and to boost his candidacy, several meetings will be held in the near future in that part of the city. Arrangements are being made to bring a stereopticon lecturer here within a short time to deliver an oration in behalf of the socialist party. The next meeting of the Tenth ward socialists will be held Monday evening.

Drum Corps to Parade.

The Jefferson club of Fort Wayne met Monday evening and it was decided that a drum corps representing the organization should make a public appearance next Saturday night. Short addresses were made by William J. Hosey, candidate for mayor; Maurice Niezer, president of the Jefferson club; William A. Bayer, candidate for councilman-at-large; Jacob Hartman, Gust Rogge, Jacob Agne, of the First ward; Frank J. Schlebecker, of the Second; Albert H. Keller, of the Eighth; Peter A. Deitschel, of the Ninth, and Herman J. Korte, of the Tenth.

YOUNG LAWYERS ACTIVE.

Will Attempt to Reorganize Old Blackford Club in City.

Under the leadership of Otto E. Fuelber, of the law firm of Harper & Fuelber, a movement has been launched for the reorganization of the young lawyers of the city, and within a short time it is hoped to have a flourishing Blackford Law club in Fort Wayne. The movement was primarily started to create a more friendly feeling among the young lawyers and to give them an opportunity to discuss law points out of court. Invitations have been sent to various attorneys asking them to attend a meeting to be held Thursday evening at Mr. Fuelber's office. If present plans are carried out, club rooms will be opened, and arrangements made for holding regular weekly meetings.

ANTOS COLLIDE; THREE HURT.

Cornfield Prevents Drivers of Cars From Seeing Each Other.

Goshen, Ind., Sept. 16.—An auto owned by John Winegard, a Syracuse merchant, and driven by his son, and a machine owned and driven by Paul Noe, of Ligonier, collided as they were entering Goshen at Johns Corners, on the Elkhart prairie. Tall corn stalks cut off the view of both drivers. Noe's car hit and upset the other machine. Winegard was caught under the wreckage and was brought to Goshen for medical attention. His passengers, Harold Bowser and Glen Gordy, of Syracuse, escaped. Noe and his passenger, Dr. Bailey, of Ligonier, were slightly hurt.

DIFFERENT OCCASIONS.

different occasions. Muret is six feet tall, overtopping Schmidt by several inches.

At the 134th street flat, which the detectives say consists of four rooms and a bath, they found a perfectly appointed dark room in the kitchen, while in the dining room was a large camera. This, Inspector Fauret said this morning, was one of the finest he had ever seen. In the bedroom was a small hand press, two pairs of rubber gloves and in the tubs in the dark room kitchen chemicals and acids of the kind used in developing photographic plates.

On his way to headquarters Dr. Muret admitted, the police allege, that he was practicing dentistry without the proper license from the state. He had studied dentistry in Berlin, he told the police, and in New York, but had failed to pass the examinations for a certificate to practice. Among his effects brought to headquarters was a framed license bearing the proper certifications. The police set about tracing the authorship of this certificate this morning.

Muret, the detectives say, is a notary public and a member of the Dental Protective association of Chicago.

NOT KNOWN THERE.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Dr. Muret is not known among dentists in Chicago. The dental protective association of which Dr. Muret is a member is a national organization, formed twenty years ago to fight alleged sham dentist device patents and has 10,000 members in the United States. Its headquarters are in Chicago. President Crouse, of the association, said: "I find Dr. E. Muret's name on our membership list, but I do not remember the man. He joined us two years ago from New York. I do not believe he ever practiced here."

CALL HIM WEAK-MINDED.

Parents of Schmidt Say He is Hereditarily Abnormal.

Aschaffenburg, Germany, Sept. 16.—The parents of the Rev. Johannes Schmidt, confessed murderer of Anna Aumuller, declared today that the young priest is hereditarily abnormal. Several members of the family are confined in asylums for the demented and there have been four suicides in the family within five years. The letters sent home by the young priest are said by his relatives to be written in a confused and hazy style. Physicians consider that the murderer's perverted instincts were actuated by forced study. It is known that he resorted to forged certificates even during his boyhood and by this means was enabled to enter the classical high school at Mainz where he was educated. He was arrested and charged with the offense but was considered by the court as weak minded.

to be held in the near future, probably tomorrow, and asked that the habeas corpus hearing be postponed. Mr. Jerome objected. "There is no federal issue involved here," he said. "I am constrained to say that this writ has been obtained under circumstances which approach very near trifling with the court."

Introduces Affidavit.

Here he introduced an affidavit by Lindsay Dennison, a newspaper writer, setting forth that Thaw's counsel had told him that the writ had been obtained not to brig about the fugitive's freedom now, but to safeguard him in the future against sudden removal should extradition be granted. "This writ," he concluded, "presents no serious question of law, but was obtained for no other purpose than delay."

George F. Morris, one of Thaw's New Hampshire lawyers, answered Jerome. The application for the writ was entirely regular, while the warrant on which New York sought to get Thaw was a mere subterfuge.

"It is an honest endeavor on our part to get this matter before the court," he said. "We have had no assurance that brother Jerome would not take Mr. Thaw at once if the extradition was granted and signed."

Only a select few were admitted to the court room.

OFF FOR LITTLETON.

Thaw Jubilant as Early Start is Made for Federal Court.

Colebrook, N. H., Sept. 16.—Harry K. Thaw, with his custodians and train of contending lawyers, left at 6:18 o'clock this morning for Littleton, N. H., to appear in the United States district court in the habeas corpus proceedings brought to checkmate any attempt to rush him back to New York. Thaw's attorney had obtained this writ as a protection in case Governor Felker signed a warrant granting the fugitive's extradition.

Thaw rose earlier than at any time since his escape from the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane on Sunday morning, Aug. 17. Early breakfast was ordered for all hands last night and the Thaw followers, newspaper men, lawyers, guards, telegraph operators and the persistent curious trooped toward the Maine Central railroad station shortly after sun-up to board the train.

The chief lawyers for Thaw, before Judge Aldrich, were Moses H. Grossman and L. J. Vorhaus, of New York city. Jerome was sole counsel for the state of New York. He was prepared bitterly to resist the move of the Thaw lawyers to obtain a continuance of the writ, on the ground that it was not a bonafide writ of habeas corpus, but an emergency measure designed to meet possible developments after the extradition hearing at Concord set for Wednesday. Thaw's lawyers, on the other hand, said they would contend that while they did not seek their client's immediate release, they desired the court's protection in view of the fact that the New Hampshire statutes afforded them no recourse to the courts, once the governor had granted extradition.

Frost fell in Colebrook last night and it was a shivering party that gathered at the railroad station. Thaw was silent, but jubilant at the prospect of appearing in a federal court for the first time in his career. He was in the joint custody of Sheriff Drew, of Coos county, and United States Marshal E. P. Nute.

BABY'S CRIES SAVE MOTHER.

Woman Faints After Turning on Gas, But is Revived.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 16.—Cries of a six-months-old baby saved Mrs. M. J. Collins from asphyxiation when she was overcome by a fainting spell as she was lighting the gas in a range yesterday. Mrs. Collins had been ill for some time, and as she was lighting the gas to heat some milk for her child, fell to the floor. The gas had been turned on, but had not been ignited and the fumes were rapidly filling the room. The baby's cry when the arrival of the milk was delayed brought neighbors, who discovered Mrs. Collins unconscious on the floor. She was revived with a pulmotor.

BURNS RECEIVED BY CHILD ARE FATAL

Little Blanche Surface Dies at Auburn of Injuries Caused by Playing With Matches.

Auburn, Ind., Sept. 16.—Burns received while playing with matches at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon resulted fatally to Blanch, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Surfus, 316 Ensley avenue, who died at 10:25 Sunday night within seven hours of the time of the tragedy. The unfortunate child lapsed into a state of semi-consciousness and continued so until the end.

The child's screams were heard by the parents, both of whom were in the house at the time, and rushing to the side of his daughter, the father received deep and painful burns about the hands in trying to tear the burning clothes from his child.

The child was alone when her clothing caught fire, however, it was obvious that she had been playing with matches as several unburned matches were found near her along with those that had been burned. The mother was sitting in the house with the baby, Mary, in her arms when she was attracted by her daughter's cries for help. Looking out of the window she saw her child enveloped in flames.

The Surfus family moved to Auburn from Huntertown last October and until recently the father has been in the employ of the Auburn Creamery company. During the past several weeks, however, he has been working for the Auburn Lumber company.

Following short services at the home Wednesday at 7:30 a. m. the funeral party will take an early interurban car for Huntertown, where at 10 the funeral will be held from the Methodist church. Rev. F. F. Thornburg, of the First M. E. church, of Auburn, officiating. Burial will follow in the Perry cemetery near Huntertown.

MANY WERE IN PERIL.

Decatur, Ind., Sept. 16.—An automobile accident that greatly endangered the lives of ten people occurred about eight miles south of Decatur, in Blue Creek township, at what is known as the Danner school house, one mile north of the village of Steele, when a car driven by Frank Quinn, in which Mr. and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Schirmeyer were riding, and another car in charge of a young man named Hoffman, in which Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hoffman, of St. Mary's township, their son, three daughters and a little grandchild were riding, collided with great force. All were out enjoying an afternoon pleasure ride. Mesdames Schirmeyer and Quinn were thrown from the automobile a distance of eight feet and alighted in the hard road; Mr. and Mrs. James Hoffman and daughter were badly injured and are unable to be up today, while their older daughter and son and grandson escaped more luckily, with only a few bruises.

PIERCETON SNEAK THIEF.

Warsaw, Ind., Sept. 16.—Farmers in the vicinity of Leesburg, who have been tying their horses at the hitchrack just north of the business section of the town have been missing whips and other small articles from their buggies for some time, and the practice has become so frequent that an effort will be made to locate the guilty party and deal with him according to law. On each Saturday night Leesburg is well filled with country people, who are there to shop and hear the weekly band concert. Every week several small thefts are reported and a few days ago a prominent citizen of the town was seen going home in a round-about way carrying three buggy whips close to his side. As the man does not own a horse, the possession of the three whips, right at the time when they were disappearing from the rigs of farmers certainly looked suspicious.

The business men of Leesburg are preparing to keep a sharp lookout in the future.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY.

Bluffton, Ind., Sept. 16.—Urging every Sunday school superintendent and others interested in Sunday school work to put forth every effort to get out a mammoth crowd for the big rally and parade to be held in this city during the street fair, the officers of the Wells County Sunday School association have scattered letters broadcast throughout the county and are already receiving assurances of a big attendance on Rally day, Friday, September 26.

Turn Hair Dark With Sage Tea

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. —Adv.

SPECTACULAR RUNAWAY.

Bluffton, Ind., Sept. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Dragoo, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Porter and Miss Azalia Murel, all of Montpelier, had narrow escapes in a most spectacular runaway accident on the Montpelier-Liberty Center pike. The party was enroute to Liberty Center to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Garrett and was draving in a carriage with a team from a Montpelier livery stable. Near the Eli Rowe farm one of the single trees broke and fell against the horses' heels, frightening them. They bolted and ran a distance of a half mile. The neck yoke finally came unfastened and allowed the tongue to drop to the ground and catch in the sod. The buggy was turned over and the horses, freed of its weight, wheeled and started back towards Montpelier. All of the members of the party were thrown to the ground and suffered painful contusions and scratches.

HORSE THIEF AT DECATUR.

Decatur, Ind., Sept. 16.—A young stranger, giving his name as Alph Wagner, who has many different stories to tell, who gives his age as sixteen, but who is at least twenty-five, according to officials, is in the Adams county jail, charged with horse theft. The boy was arrested at Willshire, Ohio, Sunday, where he had put up in the livery stable the horse and rig belonging to Charles Hoffman, which were stolen in this city Saturday evening. Mr. Hoffman had tied the outfit to the hitching rack here on the street, and when he went to get it about 9:30 o'clock found it gone. Policeman Melchi notified Sheriff Durkin, and they searched the entire night for it. It was thought it might have strayed away.

MONTPELIER WOMAN NO MORE.

Montpelier, Ind., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Mary Crosby, wife of Simeon Crosby, age 70 years, 7 months and 7 days, passed away at the family residence four miles north and one-half mile west of Montpelier, after an illness extending over a period of one year. She has been a resident of Wells county the greater part of her life and will be greatly missed by her wide circle of friends. Mrs. Crosby is survived by her husband, Simeon Crosby; one son, Fred, of Wells county; one sister, Mrs. Joannah Penrod, residing west of Ponelo, and four brothers, Fred Pace, of Ohio; Jesse Pace, of Montpelier; William Pace, of Nottingham, and Ephraim Pace, of Wells county, and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

BORN IN ELKHART COUNTY.

Goshen, Ind., Sept. 16.—Milton Stiver, aged 51 years, died at his New Paris home at 3 o'clock after an illness of several months. He was born three and a half miles southeast of New Paris, April 6, 1862, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Stiver. He lived on the farm with his parents until Dec. 25, 1885, when he was united in marriage with Amanda Treesh. A few years later he moved to his present home in New Paris, where he had resided for over twenty-five years. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Walter Schanage, of near Benton, and Mrs. George Yoder, of this city; two grandchildren and his aged mother, Mrs. Mary Stiver.

RURAL CARRIER HURT.

Auburn, Ind., Sept. 16.—Earl Sangster, a rural mail carrier out of Hamilton, was discovered in an unconscious condition by Mrs. George Burkhart at a point about three miles east of Hamilton, where he had been thrown from his motorcycle, used in delivering mail. His injuries are not thought to be serious, however, he had not regained his senses at 1 p. m. Monday. When news of the accident reached Hamilton, Girt Gnagy, Loren Oberlin and Grover Brown left in an automobile for the scene and brought the injured man to the home where Dr. Cameron was called. Sangster is aged about thirty years, is married and has two children, one of whom is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

BLUFFTON WOMAN DIES.

Bluffton, Ind., Sept. 16.—Mrs. W. R. Bergdoll is dead after two month's sickness with a cancer of the stomach. Her recovery has been despaired of for the last two weeks. Mrs. Bergdoll was 40 years old and was born on the old Frank Brice farm, three miles south of Bluffton. Her maiden name was Julia Connett and she was the daughter of John and Jane Connett, both deceased. Her marriage to W. R. Bergdoll took place in 1889 and she came to Bluffton with him to make their home immediately after. She had resided continuously for the last twenty-two years at her late residence on Horton street.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Philemon 15:25.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it; albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord; refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging; for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellowlabourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

When the People Take Hold

No governmental omen was ever so radiant of promise for a greater and a better Fort Wayne as that which is reflected from the manner in which the people are lining up in support of the movement to give this city a non-partisan administration of its governmental affairs. There is a generally accepted political axiom to the effect that in American cities the people can have just about the sort of municipal government they want. To state the case rather more accurately, they get pretty nearly the sort of government that a plurality of them indicate they will tolerate. It will be good, bad or indifferent just in proportion to the extent to which the individual voter manifests a personal interest in it and sees that his influence is registered. In years gone by the lack of popular interest has resulted in the installation of a party organization in the city hall rather than a popular government free from partisan obligation and free to do the will of the people in the most efficient manner. Under the old regime there may have usually been little choice as between this partisan organization and that. The people had little chance to win in either event under a system which placed party first.

Very happily, in this year of grace, the avenue is opened for a change from the old order of things. The conviction long entertained by the people that the partisan system in cities is wrong, extravagant, wasteful and inefficient has taken definite and organized form to substitute a system of non-partisan co operation with plain, business efficiency and better government as its keynotes. It means, simply, that the people are taking hold, and are serving notice upon the old party organizations that, however useful they may be in national affairs, they have no legitimate claim upon the rule of the city, the affairs of which are purely business and not politics. Nor will the reality and the enthusiasm of the present movement in Fort Wayne be discounted. Of that you may quickly convince yourself by a bit of casual inquiry among your neighbors, in whatever part of the city you may reside. Fort Wayne is preparing to cast off partisan shackles in its governmental affairs and insist that its administration be placed on a basis of non-partisan efficiency instead of being made the football of party politics. The fact that the people are taking hold spells the doom of most of our governmental ills, for they will not be denied better government since they have set about seriously to get it. They are the moving impulse of the non-partisan crusade in Fort Wayne.

Governor Ralston is preparing to issue his proclamation calling attention to October 9 as Fire Prevention day in Indiana. The observance ought to be general. At this season of the year in the preparation for the coming winter, it is worth while to take precautions that may avert disastrous blazes a little later. The teaching of various phases of fire prevention work to the children in the schools is another element of almost incalculable value.

Down at Muncie the acting prosecuting attorney has rebelled at an attempt to make him the public censor of slit skirts and diaphanous gowns when they appear on the streets of that city. There is always a point at which the loftiest human courage fails.

Harry Thaw is said to be "happy" at being under the jurisdiction of a United States court. Well, he has tried very nearly all of them and should by this time be able to make up his mind which he prefers.

GARBAGE PROFITS.

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.)

Under the contract with the Indiana Reduction company it will cost St. Louis eighty-seven cents a ton to get rid of its garbage. The amount averages 50,000 tons a year, so that St. Louis will have to pay this company, in the event the contract is carried out, an average of $43,500 a year to rid the city of garbage.

Cleveland, Ohio, has a municipal reduction plant which, last year, showed a profit of $1.25 a ton, according to the Engineering Record. The plant during the year handled sixty tons of refuse a day. The grease extracted brought the city $42,559, while it received from other salable products $2,169, making a total receipt of $61,728. It cost $38,503 to run the plant for one year, leaving a net profit of $23,225 for the municipality.

This looks a good deal better than an outlay of $43,500 a year with nothing to show for it. That there must be profit, even to contractors, in garbage, scientifically handled, is shown by the fact that New York city has made a five-year contract under which it will receive $62,500 the first year, and an increasing amount each year, bringing the total up to $487,500 for the five years. Because the company which formerly reduced St. Louis' garbage, at Stallings, Ill., went bankrupt, an impression has grown that the garbage problem was insoluble and that the city must take what it can get in the shape of a one-sided contract. That this is not a fact the figures cited show.

THE TARIFF BILL.

(Louisville Courier-Journal.)

The tariff law is an effort at "democratic" legislation in the broader sense of the term which will be, for political purposes, "democratic." The party wearing that label will be held to a strict accountability for its every feature and its every flaw.

The proof of the pudding is somewhat difficult in advance of the dinner hour. We shall see in a little while how the tariff law will work and how it will wear, and what mending it will require. The reasonable hope is that it will work much better, wear much better and need less amendment than its immediate predecessor, the Payne-Aldrich law, and than the republican predecessor of that short-lived and notoriously unpopular measure. Upon the issue the democrats have largely staked their lives. There is, in democratic ranks, a pervading feeling of satisfaction over the manner in which the business of tariff making has progressed, and over the climax. Time, we believe, will vindicate the new law and its makers.

Of course the new law will not make tenderloin steak sell at the price of brisket or reduce the price of a loaf to the former price of half a loaf. It will not make poor men rich or rich men poor. It will, in short, not work miracles. The best that may be hoped for, and the best that was planned, is the elimination, or material reduction, of special privilege for the favored few at the expense of the productive many.

THE OPPOSITE EFFECT.

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

The women of a San Francisco club have burned a volume of problem plays. The library committee had recommended that they be excluded from the library, but this was not done until the fair members had in turn been "shocked" by the books. The decision to burn the productions followed.

Publicly placing a ban on undesirable books and spectacularly consigning one or two copies to the flames may appease the offended readers, but so far as promoting public morality goes, that method is most likely to advertise the suppression and to create a curiosity that had better not have been aroused. It is too apt to inspire a desire among other readers to be "shocked" individually. If undesirable volumes are discovered, the most effective method, if they cannot be reached by the law, is to avoid anything that will call attention to them. The action of these San Francisco club women will probably make that volume a "best seller" on the coast.

A BOY AND GIRL MARRIAGE FAILS

HELD FOR DESERTION

James Brown came out of the Indiana reformatory and at the age of 17 had taken Bernice Masterson, aged 16, for his wife. Today Brown was in the city court to answer the criminal charge of having neglected the little mite of humanity that is the fruit of the boy and girl marriage. Mrs. Ellen E. Masterson, 1832 Hanna street, mother of the girl wife, told a damaging story against Brown, though it brought out her own folly in encouraging the marital union of her short-frocked daughter with a mere boy who had a bad record against him.

She showed, however, that she has since tried to make the best of matters and has given young Brown every chance. He has been married fourteen months and in that period has contributed something like $10 to the support of his wife and child.

Brown works steadily but spends his money on himself.

"What do you do with your money?" asked Judge Mungovan, who heard the case in private.

"Judge, it's the slot machines," broke in mother-in-law. "He goes down to the corner and just pours his money into them. He went down there and lost four or five dollars at one time."

Brown did not deny the accusation. He put a hard question up to the court when he queried:

"What do you think of a woman, judge, that would pull her young daughter into marrying a boy just out of the reformatory and perjured herself to get the license?"

Judge Mungovan couldn't or at any rate didn't, say what he thought of that, and Mrs. Masterson admitted that she had made a "mistake" of a year in the girl's age.

Brown pleaded that he wouldn't live with his wife unless he could go to housekeeping and he promised to try to do that. Meanwhile he is to make a weekly allowance from his wages for the support of his baby and fortnightly reports are to be made to Judge Mungovan by Mrs. Brown and by Brown's attorney.

Judge Mungovan hopes to pull this mad marriage out of the hole, but is harrassed with doubt.

IS TEMPORARILY INSANE.

Lover of Dead Geary Girl Hacks at His Throat With a Knife.

George Pence, aged twenty-four years, 1318 Wells street, is a patient at the county farm under the influence of anaesthetics, after having become violently insane Monday night over the death of Bessie Geary, the girl who was killed in the automobile accident Sunday morning. It is said that Pence was the girl's lover, and that since her death he had been acting strangely. He attempted to cut his throat early in the evening with a butcher knife when members of the family overpowered him, and later called Dr. J. W. Bowers, who succeeded in quieting the insane youth. Dr. Bowers says the man is only temporary insane, probably caused by the shock of the death of his sweetheart.

QUINN THOUGHT HE SHOULD WORRY

Believing Worst Had Happened Mike Notified the Town.

NEWS OF THE PO LICE

"Help! Murder! I'm cut in two, I am! Will nobody help me!" and this cry of distress blended in one long howl of agony.

Officer Pattee heard it and rushed to the Nickel Plate tracks back of the gas works. There he found Mike Quinn lying alongside the rail moaning and groaning and punctuating both with an occasional shriek. Mike had got drunk and wandered down that way looking for a place to sleep. All places looked alike to him and he stretched himself by the side of the track. When a Nickel Plate freight train came thundering along and woke him up. Quinn thought he had been cut in two by the wheels and set up his shout for help that made the welkin ring. As a welkin ringer Mike is a champion and he had the whole neighborhood disturbed. He protested to Officer Pattee that he had been run over by the train and was in two parts and it took the officer some time to get him on his feet and fully convinced that nothing had happened wrose than a narrow escape. And it was a narrow one, for Quinn was positive he could remain sober for a long time and was allowed to go.

Long Term for Charlie.

A charge of drunkenness and a previous conviction got Charlie Beurette a thirty-five day term in jail. He was in no doubt about the previous conviction, but was disposed to contest the point of his intoxication yesterday. He declared he had taken "only seven or eight drinks," but did not specify whether he had taken them from a teaspoon or a tincup. He was given a stiff sentence in order to get him thoroughly sober and away from drink long enough to give him an even chance for a new start.

Settles Damages; Pays Fine.

Fay Miller, a rolling mill employe, yesterday got into the house of Walter Shane and smashed a lot of china, broke some windows and cut up other fancy didoes that caused his arrest for malicious trespass. This morning he made a compromise settlement with Shane for the damage and paid a fine of $1 and costs. Miller's hands were badly cut during his destructive performance.

Other Cases in Police Court Today.

Austin Harrison, who rejoices in the nom de jour of "Alabama Jack," drank as long as he was conscious yesterday afternoon and then went out on Main street to sleep off his souse. Officer Spillner got him and Judge Mungovan let him go on his promise to "cut it out."

Charles Moran and Roge Kopo, a pair of vags, were released to get out of town.

Lawrence Brown, drunk, got $1 and costs, which he paid, and Jasper Beard and Paul Murphy, drunks, were turned loose. Charles Walker, for public intoxication, was continued until tomorrow.

Lady Keeper of Tiger Fined.

Rebecca Walters, at a special session of the city court yesterday afternoon, pleaded guilty to a blind tiger charge and was fined $50 and costs and sentenced to thirty days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended because she has a paralytic husband to take care of at home. A similar charge against Mabel Edwards was dismissed at the instance of the prosecuting attorney. These are the two colored women whose blind tiger at 349 Melita street, was raided by the police Sunday afternoon, when a quantity of beer was seized and half a dozen white loiterers in the place were arrested. The men were charged with drunkenness and Judge Mungovan let them go.

Jones Libel Case is Dismissed.

Wilbur Carpenter, sitting as special judge in a session of police court yesterday afternoon, finished taking testimony in the case of the state against Thomas S. Jones for criminal libel of J. J. Peters, who was the complaining witness, and granted the motion of the defendant's attorneys, Hartzell and McAdams, to dismiss the charge. The principles reside in Monroeville and the suit was the culmination of a personal fend that had long raged between them. The alleged libel was a letter in a Fort Wayne paper signed by "Thomas S. Jones." Judge Carpenter held that the identity of the defendant as the author of the letter had not been established.

HIT HER WITH A POP BOTTLE.

Bicycleman Charles Eisenhut was called to 1820 John street at 8:30 last night on complaint of Mrs. Skulkey and another woman that Mrs. Noviski was bothering the neighbors. Investigation put reverse English on the complaint. It was found that Mrs. Skulkey was the aggressor and that she had thrown a pop bottle which struck Mrs. Noviski in the stomach. The woman is in a very delicate condition and her injuries were so severe as to require the attention of Dr. J. Frank Dinnen.

NOTES OF THE POLICE.

Iva McCartlmey, wanted in Mansfield, Ohio, to testify against her father, who is to be tried for unnatural crimes against her, was arrested in Fort Wayne yesterday on a fugitive warrant and was today taken back by a deputy prosecutor from Richland county. The girl had confessed, then repudiated her confession and finally disappeared. She had been working here in a box factory. It is believed that friends of her father spirited her away from Mansfield.

Thieves looted the garage of Ed Rippe, 1345 Taylor street, according to a report to the police, and stole two tires, two auto lamps, two gas tanks and some inner tubes. There is no clue.

Missouri has a Lake Como, which is brand new, and an invention of which the state is proud. For the new lake, which is the largest in all the southwest, was made by man. Its name is a little more than Como—Taneycomo, in fact. It is eighteen miles long and in some places is a mile wide and fifty feet deep. It has several hills on the shore, which are called, with becoming dignity, "palisades."

PRISON REVIVAL IS A GOOD THING

Parson Warden Has Nightly Services for 800 Hard Criminals.

BAPTIZED IN LAUNDRY

Leavenworth, Kan., Sept. 16.—"The Kansas plan of reforming criminals confined within penitentiary walls is the best. I expect to see it adopted by every state in the union."

Warden J. D. Botkin, the democratic Methodist preacher now in charge of the state penitentiary at Lansing, says the continuous revival services he has inaugurated will, in time, convert and change every hardened criminal in the institution, and that Kansas will set an example to prison authorities throughout the world.

The Kansas penitentiary, like similar institutions in other states, has for nearly fifty years been getting along with a chaplain who preached to the converts every Sunday, and occasionally contributed to their spiritual needs during the week. Warden Botkin, a preacher who can take a hand in a revival and help "stir things up," had two objects in view in putting on a continuous revival meeting at the penitentiary; he wanted to touch the hearts and convert the 800 criminals under his charge, and he wanted the chaplain to earn his salary.

The warden's latter wish seems to have been gratified, for the chaplain is easily the busiest man about the penitentiary. He has a big job on his hands. He has promised to do his best to convert all of the prisoners, but he pleads that this cannot be done in a week or a month; it will take time, he says, to "reach" the more hardened men and women.

The revival meetings are held at night and they are to be continued indefinitely. Already about forty have professed religion. A dozen of these, including men and women, balked at baptism that consisted of sprinkling. They insisted, probably by reason of early example and training, that the rite of baptism as practiced by the Methodist and other denominations was not sufficient in their case, and they demanded immersion. One of these pointed out the scriptural lesson where "Philip and the eunuch both went down into the water and both came up out of the water," as proof of his contention. Provision had not been made for immersions within the walls of the prison, but the big tank soon was installed in the laundry room where this baptismal rite was administered by the chaplain.

Only about one-third of the prisoners confined at Lansing attended the nightly revival, but the list is increasing every day. The prisoners understand that they can attend by making their desires known to the chaplain. The majority of the hardened criminals who work in the coal mine 600 feet below the surface are glad to go to their cells and rest after the supper hour. Warden Botkin says it will not be long until a majority of the prisoners will attend the nightly meetings. It is not true, he says, that these services interfere with their daily work.

"When the day's work is done," he says, "the men are taken to their cells, after which they go to supper. After supper they are again confined to their cells, and at a certain hour all who desire to attend the meeting are allowed to do so. And every man is once more back in his cell long before time for the nightly 'count in.'"

What is said to be the largest one-piece flagpole in the world is to be erected on the grounds of the provincial court house in Vancouver, B. C. The pole is a British Columbia fir, 205 feet in length, weighing, approximately, five tons after being dressed and allowed to season six or eight or months. It will be set in a foundation of concrete ten feet deep, giving it a hight of 195 feet above the ground after being placed in position.

WHY MODERN METHODS SUCCEED

PEOPLE EAGERLY RECOGNIZING FORT WAYNE'S NEW INSTITUTION.

When an establishment meets with such recognition as the United Specialists, on 124 East Washington boulevard, the only logical reason that can be inferred is that they are giving absolute satisfaction to the patients whom they have treated.

Not only is the fact attested by numerous testimonials that have been published, but also by the vast amount of people that have been sent by satisfied patients who have undergone treatment.

Life is too short to spend in useless suffering and especially in this modern era of scientific methods, where gratifying results can be obtained with comparatively small expenditure of time and money.

The United Specialists are conducting their work from a truly humanitarian standpoint inasmuch as they never charge for treatment any fee that is beyond the reach of any afflicted person who eagerly desires to get well.

The charges they make are based upon the actual cost of treatment and the very best medicines that are possible to obtain. Of course, it would be reasonably expected that the best always costs more than inferior products, but the results are so eminently satisfactory that no one would have the least conception of using second class treatment when the value of health and life is considered. The United Specialists have kept themselves abreast of every advance in medical science and have demonstrated to many people of Fort Wayne and vicinity that many so-called surgical cases can be cured through the scientific administration of medicine and skillful treatment. Of course, the successful treatment of disease must depend on a thorough understanding of any case and an absolute diagnosis of the conditions. These Specialists through years of experience and their wonderful mechanical equipment can diagnose every doubtful and deep-seated condition.

These doctors make nervous and chronic diseases their specialty and can be interviewed at any time during their office hours, which are: 9 to 12, 1 to 5, and 7 to 8; Sundays, 9 to 12. Office located 124 East Washington boulevard.—Adv.

Self Help For Nervous Persons

Can often be achieved by a simple change of food and drink.

Much nervousness is caused by coffee drinking—eminent medical authorities having demonstrated that the coffee drug, caffeine, is a definite nerve poison to many persons.

Coffee has no food value whatever, and is a deceitful friend, Under its use the nerves first become irritated; then so sensitive and "on edge" that a slight variation from general health often appears most serious to its victim.

However, Nature responds quickly to common-sense treatment, and right living frequently does more than medicine. So, if you value peace and comfort, try this easy experiment.

Stop coffee entirely and have hot, well- made

POSTUM

This pure food-drink made from prime wheat has a Java-like flavor and a fine dark brown color which changes to rich golden brown when cream is added.

It contains the genuine nourishing elements of the grain, but is absolutely free from the coffee drug, or any other harmful ingredient.

Postum comes in two forms,

Regular Postum must be well boiled.

Instant Postum is a soluble powder. A spoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a very palatable beverage instantly.

Thousands have been wonderfully benefited by using Postum instead of coffee—

Rheumatism

A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally I found a remedy that cured me completely and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long looked for means of curing your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

The members of a sewing club to which Miss Olive Doud and Miss Alma Doehrmann both belong, were entertained by Miss Doehrmann this afternoon in honor of Miss Doud. During the supper hour the guests found the date of Miss Doehrmann's approaching wedding given, October the twenty-first, so that particular time of the afternoon was quite given over to congratulations for the two coming brides and there were exclamations and questions galore. Miss Doehrmann had decorations of much beauty and taste arranged for the afternoon. Supper was served on small tables, each of which had for decoration candles shaded under silver filagree hoods, rose holders of nuts, single bride roses for favors and dainty place cards in brochure form done in watercolors and having on the inner page the names of Miss Doehrmann and Arthur C. Scheiman, together with the wedding date. Miss Doud received a lively corsage of white roses tied with tulle ribbon. A tiny candle in rose holder stood at each plate and contributed to the pretty appearance. The rooms were decorated in garden flowers. Miss Doehrmann and Mr. Scheiman are members of well known families of St. Paul's Lutheran church. Mr. Scheiman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. W. Scheiman and he has a position of responsibility and is a member of the office force at the Wayne Knitting mills. Miss Doehrmann is very attractive and fine looking and has many qualities of sweet womanliness that have endeared her to a large circle of friends, both of her own age and of older acquaintances. Miss Doehrmann is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Doehrmann, of 1015 Washington boulevard east.

Miss Harper gave each guest a small book in which she was asked to draw a picture, write a recipe, give a sketch of the best time she remembered at Miss Dawson's home and any other interesting fact that would be likely to make pleasant reading in the future. Mrs. J. B. Harper and Mrs. C. M. Dawson were included in the list of guests.

Broderick—Reilly.

A fine looking wedding party at the Cathedral this morning at 9 o'clock was composed of Miss Mary Gertrude Reilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reilly, who was the bride, and Mr. Patrick Joseph Broderick, of this city, the bridegroom, and their two attendants, Miss Margaret O'Rourke and Mr. John Broderick. In deference to the wishes of both bride and groom the wedding service was as simple as possible, other than the celebration of the nuptial mass by Rev. John Quinlan. Mrs. E. H. Kirkland sang all the solos of the mass. The church decorations were in palms and ferns. The bride's becoming costume was of a white lace made over messaline and she wore a beautiful lace hat trimmed with white plumes. The bride carried in her arms a bouquet of bride roses, from which hung a shower of tulle ribbon and rosebuds and in her hand a very small white prayer book. The bride also wore the groom's gift, a slender chain with pendant of pearls and diamond center. Miss O'Rourke made a charming contrast to the white costume of the bride in a gown of pink crepe de chine made with pink chiffon blouse and oriental lace trimmings and a pink maline hat with pink plumes. The bridesmaid's bouquet was in colonial style of pink Killarney roses. After the church service the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, 1161 Harmer street, where the wedding breakfast was served to sixteen people by Mrs. Graff, who catered. The house had been tastefully decorated by Miss Flick with palms, smilax, asters and roses, only white and green appearing as colors. The table was handsomely trimmed with smilax and white roses and the bride's cake. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Noll, of Indianapolis, were the only guests from away. Later in the day the bride and groom left over the Pennsylvania for Atlantic City and New York. They will be gone two weeks. The bride wore a black broadcloth suit with white messaline blouse and a very stunning hat of black velour trimmed with a cardinal hackel breast across the back and a bit of velvet to match brought round in front. Mr. and Mrs. Broderick will be gone two weeks and will be at home after the first of October at 125 East Taber street, where they are going to housekeeping.

AT THE TEMPLE

There are some splendid things on the Temple bill just now and that they are appreciated is demonstrated by big audiences. Palfrey, Barton and Brown present what they call "The Follies of Vaudeville." The act is handsomely set, the girl of the trio of performers dances with much agility and grace and the men are skillful on bicycles but presented nothing new to Fort Wayne audiences.

Danny Simmons, the military boho, has an act that presents originality and some very amusing entertainment. Mr. Simmons gets the laugh and the applause and his act is lively and good every minute. He is a favorite number of the bill.

One might suppose that he is familiar with all the tricks that a ventriloquist can do, that is, if he has been a frequent patron of the Temple vaudeville, for there have been many such entertainments. But such a theater-goer will find something new in the rear Howard, a Scotchman with humor, cleverness and wonderful work. Mr. Howard presents a sketch and his mannikin assistants, for there are two of them, are made to seem astonishingly lifelike, besides talking for his mannikins, Mr. Howard smokes, drinks and apparently makes two or three people talk at once. The act is very high-class and is called "A Date at the Dentist's."

Downs and Gomaz are two singers with really musical voices and their selections from grand opera and from modern favorite songs bring down the house.

Lulu Hunter and two aassistants present a musical act in which they play cornet, violin and 'cello and sing. The violin and 'cello numbers are the most pleasing.

Mr. Dicey has arranged an especially good program to accompany the run of photo-plays and current events.

AT THE EMPRESS

When one witnesses the performances of Prince Floro, the "man monkey," at the Empress theater this week, one will undoubtedly question whether Darwin isn't right after all in spite of everything that has been said against his theory that our early ancestors were monkeys. Prince Floro is a marvel and it would be impossible for him to give a more striking imitation of a human being. This remarkable monkey is entertaining Empress audiences as the headliner this week, heralded throughout the world as "the proof of Darwinism." Prince Foloro is the marvel of scientists. He dresses and undresses himself just like any human would do the job. He eats with knife and fork, smokes with ease and drinks with riotous abandon. He culls for his smoking outfit, he plays billiards and pool, chalks his cue and marks up his points just like a regular pool or billiard player. Prince Floro rides a bicycle like a professional and some of his tricks on the wheel put to shame many of the attempts made at trick riding by men and women who are drawing big salaries for their work. Prince Floro is really the earth's greatest monkey, the absolute monarch of educated Simians.

Then this week we also have "A Night in a Bath," one of the most amusing Turkish bath house scenes ever staged. There is a neat little plot running throughout the act, and during the time the farce is in action numerous songs and dances add attractiveness to the presentation. Mary Dorr has a number of new songs and as a character comedienne she is excellent. Her act is one of the distinct hits of this week's Empress offering. Another number of interest and beauty is Arthur Geary, the distinguished Tasmanian tenor, who is billed and known throughout the entire country as "The Red Hussar." Farley & Prescott, singers and acrobatic dancers are landing their share of the applause, and with new songs and sensational dances they are providing a generous portion of popularity to this week's bill. One of the best acts of the week opens the show. It is the Les Trio Morandini, bamboo ladder and pole equilibrists.

POPULAR NEW HAVEN COUPLE WED.

MR. FRED POLLITZ.

MRS. FRED POLLITZ.

Two well-known young people of New Haven were married this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the parsonage of the Lutheran church of that place. The bride was Miss Lauretta Blaising, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blaising, and the groom was Mr. Fred Pollitz, son of Mrs. Dorothy Pollitz, also of New Haven. The Rev. Kohlmeyer officiated at the marriage service in the presence of a few witnesses. The bride was attended by Miss Nora Menze and the bridegroom by Mr. Will Davis. The bride looked exceedingly pretty and sweet in a becoming suit of white serge with blouse of white messaline and a white satin hat. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bride's sweet disposition has won many friends for her in New Haven and she is also popular among acquaintances in this city. Mr. Pollitz is highly respected by all who know him. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Kammeier, where the wedding supper was served. Mrs. Kammeier is a sister to the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Pollitz will make their home in this city and have selected a pretty residence in Lakeside.

AT THE JEFFERSON

Two thrillers are showing at the Jefferson tonight—"The Perils of the Past," a three-reel production of thrills that take you the entire length of sensationals ending with an automobile in a wild dash down a mountain side. The other feature is "A Forest Romance," in two reels, a different kind of an Indian play with Mona Darkfeather in the leading part. The extra added special is Ralph Patterson, basso, with a new song.

BARBARIC TASTE IN MILLINERY.

Season Brings Weird Looking Plumage for Women's Hats.

If it were possible for the ancient American Indian to take a peep at the modern American woman he would undoubtedly turn green with envy and try at once to copy her headgear, for the autumn girl of 1913 is going in for the barbaric—at least as far as her hats are concerned—and her feather ornaments are more weird and wild than were those of the red-faced men.

Almost every one of the new autumn models that now grace the shop windows are decorated with a strange looking plume or plumes, set at an odd angle on the brim or crown of the hat. The stranger the effect the smarter the confection seems to be. Any sort of an eccentricity goes this season.

When the rudder plume made its appearance on the back of smart hats last spring, sticking out at right angles from the rear brim of millinery models, the average person, looking in wonderment at this latest freak of fashion, thought that at last the acme of eccentricity had been reached. But the daring dictator of feminine modes, just to show that she would go one better, has launched this autumn the banana tree quill and all sorts of spikey feathers.

The banana tree confection is shown in all its glory as one style. It is a species of cocque feather and possesses a long, slim stem, at the top of which is bunched a cluster of drooping cocque feathers which looks for all the world like a bunch of bananas. Hence the name. Also illustrated is one of the newest and very smartest hats trimmed with a strange variety of feathers.

Tulle continues in all its popularity. It has been the correct material for headgear for the last two months. It began with a toque of moderate size with transparent brim and transparent crown. Now, the brim has grown and extended into an unreasonable size and width. One of these, turban shaped, has a cat-like prominence on either side of the head. This is composed of double-pleated black tulle.

NEW YORK FADS AND FANCIES.

There are a variety of attractive wraps of all sorts to be seen now if you want to go looking for them.

There are long plain coats in striped or checked ratine, or fashioned in a more waterproof material, and a particularly pleasing outdoor garment is designed after the model of the coats worn by Italian officers.

It fastens snugly at the neck and is worn slung over the shoulder in true cavalier fashion.

Already the long fur coat is with us again, though surely it has no right to appear just yet, with summer still sitting in the lap of autumn.

To wear with the sporting costumes and coats of the season there are jaunty little hats of velours, rolled up at the side like Alpines.

The only trimming used on these is a simple band of ribbon or wings and quills, and many women are not having them decorated at all.

SOUSA'S BAND COMING HERE

Morning Musical Society Announces First Recital.

DATE IS SEPTEMBER 25

The first announcement of the Morning Musical society for the season will delight every music lover in the city. Sousa's band will open the musical season for the society at the Majestic theater on Thursday, Sept. 25. There are sixty men in the band and the accompanying artists are Virginia Root, soprano; Marged Gluck, violinist, and Herbert L. Clarke, cornetist. It has been many years since the great bandmaster Sousa has been in Fort Wayne with his famous organization of players. His fame as a director is so well known that comment at this time is not necessary. The appearance of the band means a treat and the soloists are in a class in keeping with so meritorious a company as the band.

JEWELRY A MATTER OF TASTE.

Not Expensive But Becomingness Is Considerd These Days.

Jewelry is not worn nowadays because of its value, but because of its beauty, and often the effect obtained with semi-precious stones in lovely settings is far more exquisite than the most valuable jewels.

There is, for instance, the chrysoprase, which with its pale opaque sea green tone is a most delightful ornament, especially when set in silver. A beautiful necklace includes small pieces of chrysoprase set around with a delicate tracery of unpolished silver. There are about a dozen stones in all, and the design, which is wide in front, narrows toward the back to almost a chain.

Another chrysoprase ornament takes the form of the fashionable plaque pendant. A carved piece of the stone some two or three inches in length and one or two in breadth is suspended from a slender silver chain which is attached to two holes in the plaque, while a drop or another flat plaque hangs below. It is rather barbaric, and to look well would have to be worn with great discrimination.

The same remark applies to a rope of brown string like fabric knotted and threaded with rough pieces of chrysoprase. It is about a yard and a half long and is intended to be worn round the neck.

Chrysoprase is one of the most popular stones of the moment and it well deserves its position. Chalcedony is another favorite, and with its cloudy blue color is a serious rival to it.

Lapsi lazuli and moonstones, with silver settings, amber necklaces threaded as beads or set as brooches with a plain band of gold, have their place.

How to Keep Face Young and Attractive

(National Hygienic Review.)

The way to ward off old age is not to fear it, not to allow one's self to be oppressed by the dread of advancing years. Use only legitimate preventatives and avoid trying experiments with preparations not indorsed by physicians. An entirely safe and very effective way to keep the complexion young looking and beautiful is to apply ordinary mercolized wax at bedtime, using it like cold cream, and washing it off in the morning. This gradually absorbs the withered, faded cuticle, which is replaced by the more youthful, pink-tinted underskin. One ounce of this wax, to be had at any drug store, is enough to completely rejuvenate a worn-out complexion.

Crow's feet and other wrinkles, the first signs of advancing age, may be removed by a simple, harmless preparation made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel. It is used as a face bath.

Health and Beauty Hints

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

Mrs. O. L.: You complain of brittle, faded hair. You will find that keeping the scalp clean and healthy is the most effective way to restore the natural beauty and softness, but in selecting your shampoo avoid soaps or mixtures containing "free" alkali. By dissolving a teaspoonful canthrox in a cup of hot water you will have a mild, soothing, cleansing mixture that makes the head feel fine and removes all dust, dandruff and excess oil, leaving the scalp clean and pliant and assuring a beautiful growth of long, lustrous, fluffy hair.

E. G.: Nature never intended woman to have fuzz on her cheek. Get from your druggist a small original package of delatone and mix a little of the powder with water. Apply the paste to the obnoxious hairs and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off and the hairs will come with it. After the skin is washed and dried, it will be velvety and free from hair or blemish.

Katie: Yes, powder has ruined more complexions than it has aided and while you use it you can hope for nothing better than an imitation of a real complexion. Take my advice. Get from your druggist 4 ounces spurmax and dissolve in ½ pint hot water or witch hazel, then add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine and you will have an ideal yet inexpensive lotion which seems a part of the skin. Apply this spurmax lotion sparingly and rub lightly for an instant and it will vanish, leaving the skin clear and soft. The daily use of this spurmax lotion rids the skin of that coarse, sallow, oily appearance and renders the complexion divinely fair and beautiful.

Elaine: Yes, there is a harmless way to make your eyes sparkle, a way that will also strengthen and rid them of that dull ache and tired feeling you mention. Make and use the following eye tonic: Dissolve 1 ounce crystos in 1 pint clear water, then put 2 or 3 drops in each eye a few times daily. It is an excellent thing for granulated eyelids, to reduce inflammation and take out soreness.

Miss C.: Dandruff is the cause of your trouble. Cleanse the scalp thoroughly, then twice a week massage a little of this home made tonic into the scalp. Make the tonic by pouring 1 ounce quinzoin into ½ pint alcohol, to which is then added ½ pint water. This quinzoin tonic is soothing and healing to itching, tender scalps and is wonderfully effective in restoring the gloss and fluffiness to dull, stringy hair and its continued use will induce a lovely growth of long, healthy, beautiful hair.

Distress: You can quickly remove that burdensome fat and regain your former figure if you use parrotis, prepared at little expense, as follows: Into 1½ pints hot water put 4 ounces parrotis and strain when cool. Take a tablespoonful before each meal until your weight is sufficiently reduced, then discontinue treatment. No ill results follow this method of reduction and your flesh and skin will be left firm and smooth.

Maurice: The sallow, yellow color of your neck and chin, of which you speak, are caused by sluggish blood and which is not properly eliminating the poisons from the system. Try this blood purifier and tonic: Into ¾ pint acohol (whisky must not be used) pour 1 ounce kardene, then add ¾ cupful sugar and hot water to make a full quart. Take 1 tablespoonful of this old-fashioned blood cleanser and tonic before each meal. This is splendid for that weak, worn feeling and restores the vital organs to a healthy condition, and its timely use will save much serious sickness.

Eva: If your skin is wrinkled or saggy, you need the stimulating and beautifying effect of some simple vegetable jelly-cream, which can be easily and cheaply made at home. Try this one, which is the best of many I have used: Get from your druggist one ounce almozoin and dissolve in ½ pint cold water, adding two teaspoonfuls glycerine. Use this with a gentle massage and as a jelly mask on wrinkled surface and it will work wonders on your skin, eradicating wrinkles and restoring that velvety, youthful glow.

WILL COMPLETE WORK THIS FAIL

Grace Company is Awarded Contracts for Paving Nine Streets.

THE MUNICIPAL NEWS

Work will be completed this fall on all of the nine streets for which contracts were awarded this morning by the board of public works. The Grace Construction company swept the patter clean and in only one instance was the order of the board for material changed. Property owners on Crescent avenue reversed, changing from brick to anchored bituminous concrete. Dayton avenue will have the same material. All the others will be paved with sheet asphalt.

Contractor Mart Grace has assured the board that all of the work in this program shall be completed by the time fixed unless there should be an intervention of much bad weather. The board has established November 15 as the time limit.

The contracts awarded today cover the following streets: Crescent avenue, Lake to State; Webster, Jefferson to Baker; Maud, Thomas to Holton; Thomas, Pontiac to McKee; Barr, DeWald to Creighton; Kinnaird, Hoagland to Fairfield; Swayne, South Wayne to Fox; Cottage, South Wayne to Broadway; Dayton, Beaver to Broadway.

The Grace company has all of its work well under way and is now grading McClellan, the last of the streets awarded it at the previous letting.

BOARD WILL MAKE INQUIRY.

Complaint That Firemen Block Traffic to Be Investigated.

At tonight's meeting of the board of safety an inquiry will be made into the complaint, somewhat exploited in newspapers, that the city fire department while in attendance at a recent blaze needlessly blockaded Calhoun street and seriously impeded traffic. Either Chief Hilbrecht or Assistant Chief Jasper will be present. The board will endeavor to establish if the firemen obstructed traffic without due cause. It is probable that the board will discuss some regulations purposed to obviate in future any unnecessary blockading of streets by the laying of hose lines or the placing of wheeled equipment.

The board will probably award contracts for the purchase of the two new auto trucks authorized by the city council for the use of the fire chief and his assistant.

Chairman J. C. Hutzell has returned to the city and will be present at the meeting this evening.

WILL CONFER WITH BASS WORKS.

Board of Works to Take Up That Bid on Ornamental Posts.

The board of works is having a conference with the Bass Foundry and Machine works with reference to that concern's bid to furnish the standards for the ornamental lighting system soon to be installed on West Main street, Columbia street, Calhoun street south and Clinton and Harrison streets. The bid itself was very satisfactory and the board would like to have assurance that the delivery can be made in time so as not to interfere with the program of the work of installation.

At yesterday's meeting of the board the W. M. Sheehan company of New York submitted the lowest bids for all of these contracts for ornamental lighting. The New York company's bid for the entire work, including posts, was $31,484. Its bid on the work of wiring and installation alone was approximately $15,000, lower than the bids submitted two weeks ago, when all were thrown out because too high.

The board yesterday adopted a declaratory resolution to extend the ornamental system on Harrison street from Jefferson to Grand so as to take in the territory in the vicinity of the new Wabash and Pennsylvania depots.

RAIN STOPS PUBLIC WORK.

Today's rains put a stop to work on public contracts much to the regret of the board of works and contractors as well. The most serious interference is at Broadway and the Wabash railroad, where it is desired to make all possible speed with the subway. Street car traffic has been suspended at that point and passengers have to transfer. Paving and other work also suffered delay, but the consequences are not so serious as at Broadway and the railroad.

WANT CARLOAD OF INDIANA BRIDES

Bachelor's Club in New Mexico Sends Wholesale Order.

AN APPEAL TO SHANK

Indianapolis, Sept. 16.—A plaintive cry for help, assistance and succor was received at the mayor's office yesterday from the land of cactus, coyotes and rattlesnake oil. A young man, representing others of his kind in dire distress, wrote to Mayor Shank from Mosquero, N. M., requesting that the mayor send a whole carload of feminine happiness to relieve the lonesomeness of a newly organized bachelor club in that city.

In the past Mayor Shank has been conducting a matrimonial bureau as a retailer, but now he will go into the business on a wholesale scale. Amos Burk, secretary to the mayor, declared that efforts will be made to supply the demand of the letter and he expects a long list of names to be presented to the writer within a few days. The letter to the mayor follows:

"I have taken the liberty of writing to you on a very peculiar matter, but one of greater importance than might appear at first glance. Like a great many other parts of the west, this part of New Mexico has been settled by young men from the east, who have made good, have built good homes, have good farms and growing bank accounts, but during our residence here have dropped out of life in the east, where we might hope to secure wives, and on account of the scarcity of women in this part of the west are unable to secure such helpmates as we desire.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE.

Kendallville, Ind., Sept. 16.—While en route home from Fort Wayne Sunday evening, Dr. D. D. Johnston figured in an automobile collision with a Fort Wayne automobilist near Huntertown. The former car was badly damaged. The cars collided at a bad stretch in the road and had the automobilists been driving at any rate of speed a serious accident would have resulted. No one was injured. The car of Dr. Johnston was brought home today and is now in the Wallace garage for repairs.

WINDOW PANES WERE OUT.

Dr. E. M. VanBuskirk, the county health officer, today summarily closed Adams township school No. 8 on Wayne trace, a short distance east of the city. An investigation of complaints made showed that six 12x14 inch window panes were missing from the windows of the buildin, and pupils were suffering from the inclement weather. The window panes had been smashed by boys during the past summer and had not been replaced. Dr. VanBuskirk says school must not be reopened there until the building is placed in sanitary condition.

SHOOTS TO END KISSING SCENE

Indiana Doctor Fires on Man He Found Embracing Wife.

TWO VERSIONS OF IT

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 16.—Arriving at his home and, as he alleges, finding Joseph Stout, employe of the National Refining company, kissing his wife, Dr. C. M. Clayton, of 2503 Brookside avenue, a prominent Indianapolis physician, shot Stout, was placed under arrest, and while on the way to police headquarters in his automobile ran down Ray Deering, a 14-year-old boy.

The wounded man and the injured boy were taken to the city hospital in the police emergency wagon, while Dr. Clayton and his wife drove their car to police headquarters. The boy is badly hurt, and Stout's condition may be serious.

Dr. Clayton found the driveway to his garage blocked by a driverless oil wagon when he returned home. He says he got out of his car and walked around the house. Then he saw Stout throw his arms about Mrs. Clayton just inside the kitchen door and kiss her. Mrs. Clayton appeared to be trying to force the man away, he said.

Fires Once; Revolver Balks.

Drawing a small automatic revolver he carried, Clayton opened fire on Stout. When one shot was fired the safety device on the gun was sprung and Dr. Clayton says he was not able to fire again, though he tried to empty the gun at Stout, who ran from the house.

Stout, according to his story, went to the Clayton home to collect for the National Oil company, for which he drives a wagon.

"As I was standing in the doorway talking with Mrs. Clayton, Clayton fired," he said. "I think the doctor was a little hasty. I was doing nothing wrong. We were only cutting up, as I am in the habit of doing. Perhaps he was tired of having me come around to collect a bill he owes the firm. It has been owing for three months."

Dr. Clayton's version of the affair differs.

"He first said, 'O, you baby doll,' to my wife," declared the doctor, "and then he grabbed her in his arms and hugged her. It was then that I entered the room. When he saw me he started to run. Getting my revolver I followed and fired."

The shot penetrated Stout's arm.

At police headquarters Dr. Clayton declared he was glad the revolver jammed.

"I am glad now I did not kill him," he said. "When I went in and saw him with his arms around my wife I was so crazed with anger that I shot. I then notified the police and when they arrived we started for headquarters."

"The man came into the house and attempted to kiss me," said Mrs. Clayton. "I told him to leave and that I would tell my husband of his attempt. Then he threw his arms about me and was kissing me in spite of my struggles, telling me how he loved me and such things, when my husband came up and shot him."

TEACHERS ASKED TO FIGHT PLAGUE

Health Department Wants to Stamp Out Reign of Diphtheria.

MANY CASES IN CITY

The large and unusual number of cases of diphtheria in the city will be given most vigilant attention by the health department and the situation will be brought under control without delay. It has been a long while since Fort Wayne has been so seriously scourged by this plague of childhood as it is now and the fact that all of the schools of the city are in session adds to the difficulty.

Dr. Eric A. Crull, secretary of the board of health, today sent out the following letter to all the school teachers in the city:

In view of the rather unusual amount of diphtheria in the city at present, the board of health wants to call your attention to two measures which should be conscientiously observed in every school in the city:

First, have each teacher make personal inquiry at the opening of her class each day as to the presence of sore throat among the pupils.

Second, have the teacher try to find out whether any other children at home are ill with sore throat. Have her then demand of the child a certificate from the physician who is attending the sick brother or sister, giving exact nature of the sore throat.

Where there is no attending physician, this board will immediately send out someone capable of determining the character of the illness.

Please give this matter your immediate and careful attention; not only is it in conformity with the demands of the state law, but will also doubtlessly appeal to you as being necessary to the successful attendance for this term.

Very respectfully,
E. A. CRULL,
Secretary Board of Health.

It is hoped to prevent any further serious spread of the disease by keeping a close watch on all suspicious throats and by rigorously enforcing the law. The present outbreak is rather puzzling to the health authorities. It has invaded nearly all sections of the city, showing that it is not a neighborhood infection or spread in the schools. That it may become a grave situation is recognized.

Several new cases of diphtheria were reported to the health department today.

The New Cases.

Since yesterday morning ten new cases of diphtheria have been reported to the health department. Three were reported today as follows:

Edwin Wesner, aged 10, 1405 Summit street; Stephen Wiedmeier, aged 7, 1126 Wilt street; William Millhouse, aged 8, 2612 East Pontiac street.

HOW A YOUNG SINGER MADE A FORTUNE

A young European singer has made a fortune by making a recipe of a sauce which has had the most phenomenal success. The singer had suffered for years with a severe case of indigestion and consulted many celebrated doctors in Europe. A distinguished French specialist mentioned to the singer a vegetable which had marvelous digestive properties but was not much used. The singer made a sauce, containing this vegetable, which he added to his food and in the cooking. Leading cooks in Europe pronounced it a sauce unexcelled for seasoning and when added to food. The name Waw-Waw was given to the sauce and a company was formed to make it for the general public. So great and immediate was the success that Waw-Waw is now to be found in all parts of the world and is already used by the principal hotels and railroads throughout America. It adds a zest and piquancy when used in cooking and in soups, salads, hot and cold meats and fish, which is unequalled and at the same time, see how easily you can digest anything. Waw-Waw is absolutely unlike all other sauces and although in taste it resembles a Worcestershire, yet the ingredients are quite different. Waw-Waw (an obsolete South American Indian word for vegetable) is a purely vegetable sauce and contains no raw spices and guaranteed absolutely pure. Letters have been received from people stating how much good it has done them. A trial 25-cent bottle will convince you how much more you will enjoy your food and how easily you digest anything and everything.

Bowlers Want Each Team to Have Money in the League Treasury.

HAD A BIG MEETING

While all of the bowlers in Fort Wayne failed to fall in line with the idea of placing their own money as forfeits to guarantee that each club will play out the schedule, an agreement was reached last night at a big meeting in the Brunswick alleys by which a deposit of $25 will be required of each team and it is proposed to get this money in the hands of the treasurer before the start is made early in October.

It is proposed to form one league of a dozen clubs and play half the games on each of the public alleys and every team is to supply its own forfeit no matter from what source the money comes. The great objection to this is that the business man who is asked to subscribe has no assurance that his club will finish.

He can put up his money with the hope of getting enough advertising to pay for the outlay but none of them will be secured against the players jumping the league as soon as the club fall so far behind in the race that it cannot expect to win any of the prize money.

Members of the rules committee are H. C. Tuttle, William Doehrmann, A. W. Sander, Frank Quinn and Fred Reynolds, and it is possible that they will incorporate a section providing that the money shall be split pro rata, each team getting a fixed sum for every game it wins. This was found an effective means of holding the clubs in line a couple of seasons ago.

Ben Ungemach, Henry Pranger and John Leist will formulate the schedule and report at another meeting to be held next Monday night a tthe Brunswick, and if the preliminary work can be completed the first games will be played the first week in October.

Questions of the player limits, the averages for players on each team and a dozen or more matters of like detail were brought up and thrashed out and sent to the committee on rules. There was a big turnout at the gathering and plenty of enthusiasm to indicate a good season. Owners of the Brunswick and Metropolitan alleys each agreed to donate $50 to be put in the prize fund and this is given with the stipulation that each club post its forfeit and play out the season.

The alley owners will be secured by the deposits and teams failing to report will have the alley expenses deducted from these guarantees. A dozen captains will be chosen a the next meeting and all of the preliminary arrangements made at this time.

In the meantime the alleys will be put in shape for the contests as each proprietor has given assurance that the equipment will be put in first-class shape at all times.

LOYAL CITIZENS HELP BALL TEAM

Sheriff and Bank Cashier Jump Into Game for Home Club.

HOLTON WINS BATTLE

Baldwin, Mich., Sept. 16.—Perhaps no finer display of loyalty to a home town and its baseball team was ever recorded than that displayed by Bill Burnett, the rotund sheriff of Lake county, and Bob Smith, cashier of the Lake County bank.

News was conveyed to town from White Cloud that two Baldwin players were badly injured in the second game of the series with Holton for a purse of $100 and the championship of Lake, Muskegon and Newaygo counties. With the series tied at one game apiece, the crucial struggle to be played on the following day, and two of the local stars laid on the shelf, Baldwin naturally enough was in a wild state of frenzy as to how the star players were to be replaced in time for the game. The supply of young players in town was exhausted, and as the conditions of the tournament stated specifically that only home players could be used, no outside town could be drawn upon for relief.

Hearing the news from White Cloud and realizing that two players must be rushed to the scene in a hurry, Sheriff Burnett and Banker Smith dug up baseball shoes long since relegated to the attic and prepared to go to the rescue of their fellow townsmen. They arrived in White Cloud just in time to jump into the fray for Baldwin and have five minutes of preliminary practice.

The chief executive of Lake county, whose best baseball days were those of ten years ago, proceeded to baffle the Holton batters with his left-handed shoots and held them safe throughout the game. But that is not all. Burnett crashed out a home run with two on bases that tied the score, and later won the game and title by another circuit clout. The score of the game was 8 to 7, and Baldwin is still celebrating the victory achieved by two citizens long since regarded as dead ones so far as baseball is concerned.

New Petitions for Pardon Filed by Indiana Convicts.

Indianapolis, Sept. 16.—In addition to a number of continued cases, twelve new cases for pardons and clemency, including those of three convicted murderers, have been filed with the clerk of the state board of pardons and paroles, which begins its fall meeting here September 22. A number of the appeals, including those of the three murderers, have previously been refused by the board. In the list, in which only the names are given in some cases, are the following:

Walter S. Green, from Sullivan county, 1907, for life for murder; Charles E. Shepherd, from Jay county, 1902, for life for murder; William Adams, from Sullivan county, for life for murder; Paul Dunning, Vanderburgh county, April, 1913, to Indiana reformatory; John C. Boyer, Elkhart county, 1911, to the reformatory, and George W. Hawkins, Pike county, for forgery to the state prison.

RIVALS IN GREAT WORLD'S SERIES

Lapp, Connie Mack's Veteran Catcher, Who is Being Saved for the World's Series, and Wilson, the Clever Giant Backstop.

JACK LAPP AND WILSON, WHO MAY MEET BEHIND THE BAT WHEN ATHLETICS AND GIANTS CLASH.

Jack Lapp, the strong-armed backstop of the Athletics, will probably clash with Wilson, of the Giants, unless Connie Mack decides to use him as his first string catcher instead of the sensational young Schang. It is said that Mack has been resting Lapp with this intent, figuring he would rather have a veteran behind the bat than the best of kids.

Wilson is second-string catcher for the Giants and is a pupil of McGraw's school. The surest sign that he has "class" is the fact that McGraw has held onto him so long as he has.

TO HELP OUT OSBORN.

A project is on foot in Louisville to play a benefit game in that city on Sept. 23, the Louisville club's share of the receipts to be devoted to a partial restoration to Outfielder Wilfred Osborn of the money he lost in a recent bank collapse in Sycamore, O., his home town. The free list will be absolutely suspended on that day.

An exhibition game between the Colonels and Pirates will be played at Louisville on Sept. 20.

Mique Fisher Spins Yarns of Barnstorming Delights That Lie Over Pacific Ocean.

MIQUE FISHER.

When Mique Fisher, who piloted the famous Tacoma "man-eaters" of 1904-5 to a couple of Coast league pennants, saw his Fresno club, in the same league, foundered a year later, 'twas said among the California fans that Mique had taken the count as far as baseball was concerned.

Mique did abdicate from league baseball after the Fresno disaster. Mique says there was not even the remnant of a bat leg left.

It was that season in the coast that induced Mique to turn in his check. He was the kind who believed in that old adage that a good man could not be kept down. So he formed a club of all-stars, and the following year invaded Honolulu.

Two years later Mique took another lunch across the Pacific, this time making an extended tour of the Orient. In both trips but one game was lost.

"The Chicago White Sox and New York Giants are also talking about a world's tour," said Mique, discussing a Pacific coast journey he's planning for this fall with another all-star outfit, "but if they insist on their present demands, a thousand dollar guarantee per game, it is with girlish chuckles that I note their schedule includes China. Why, they'd have to call a legal holiday the day after the game to allow every one to help Comiskey and McGraw count the change, if they got that much money.

"We played in Canton, China, to a crowd of 150,000 fans. I had to hire a dray to lug the money back to the hotel. Four of us worked all night counting it. It amounted to $42.65.

"Harry Hilldebrant, who is now umpiring in the American league, was on the gate. He stole 15 cents, but couldn't carry it home.

"During a game in Tokio, with Graney, now of the Cleveland team, pitching, we switched batteries with the Japs. Graney never worked harder before in his life, but he simply couldn't get the ball over, and walked the first five men. The Japs started to swarm the field, and I had to switch the batteries in order to save him from being lynched."

Mique's favorite story of an incident during the tour of the Orient is the experience which he insists befell him in Yokohama. He declares, in all seriousness, that while he was a passenger in a jinrikisha a paper suddenly blew into the face of the Jap towing him, and he ran away.

"I have received a contract from Willie Mitchell, Cleveland's left-handed pitcher," he said. "I am also taking Bill James along and may possibly obtain Walter Johnson. If the White Sox do not make their contemplated tour, Hal Chase has promised to come along. If Chase cannot be secured, 'Hap' Myers will fill in at first.

"Bert Whaling and Bliss, the former St. Louis National league player, now with Sacramento, will do the catching.

"The outfield positions possibly will be filled by Duffy Lewis and Harry Hooper, of the Boston Americans, and Harry Walters, New York Americans. I am still negotiating for several infielders.

"The trip this year is to be the Hawaiians and Australi aonly. We have six games scheduled in Honolulu and one in Hilo, where two days will be spent at the volcano. The team will stay in Honolulu fourteen days, leaving for Australia Nov. 24. We return to San Francisco possibly Feb. 1."

YOUNGSTOWN HAS CHANCE IN GAME

Larry Schafley Quoted as Saying He May Form a League.

POWERS QUITS GAME

Youngstown, O., Sept. 16.—Youngstown has hope of a professional baseball team next season. According to advices from Canton Larry Schafley, now manager of the Jersey City club in the International league, is thinking of taking hold of the plant and assisting in the organization of a class B league in this section. It is understood that Schafley will sever his connection with Jersey City at the close of the season, and is anxious to purchase a baseball plant in a minor league.

If Schafley makes good in the matter of taking over the Youngstown ball property the city may expect one of the best organizations she has ever had. The boss of the "Skeeters" is recognized as one of the best baseball heads in the country, and until this season he has never been associated with a loser. His difficulty at Jersey City is said to be largely due to interferences from the backers of the club who recently obtained the services of Mike Donlin, ostensibly to hold him in reserve until next season.

Schafley resides near Canton with his parents during the winter season. He recently visited his home for several days, when he became interested in the Youngstown baseball situation on the recommendation of Canton baseball men. He has declared his intention of coming to this city in the near future to look over the property and to consult with owners regarding the statistics of the club during the past few years.

While Schafley may not make a decisive move in the matter this year it is interesting to note that the local situation has attracted the attention of a man of experience such as the International league manager. It shows clearly that Youngstown is not to be denied professional baseball because she became entangled with several burgs unable to support anything but semi-annual church bazaars.

Powers has stoutly denied rumors that prospective purchasers have sought information regarding the Youngstown plant. He admits freely that he is through with the pastime but he is considering proposals from local parties who are interested in the erection of a saucer track next spring on which to hold motorcycle races. His denial was not sought in this matter as there appears to be little chance of the introduction of bike racing here as a regular sport.

It will be interesting to note the outcome of the Schafley proposition. The Canton resident is well equipped with money and baseball brains. He knows the game from every angle and with him at the head of the organization and a leading light in a class B circuit, there seems no reason why the venture should not pan out.

Not Easily Scared.

The Interstate league's failure does not baffle nor frighten Schafley, according to reports. He, like numerous others in this section of the reservation, believe the failure was due more largely to poor management than disinclination of the fans to patronize the sport.

The circuit started with barnacles. President Dawson knew little or nothing of running a league and soon after the season he incurred the enmity of several magnates when he handed down a couple of rulings that would have made the ordinary Bowery magistrate blush. These warring magnates soon formed a faction and that faction started the organization down the toboggan when they demanded a meeting at Canton and insisted that Youngstown chase Mosely because he was the "best pitcher in the league." The local representative declared on his return from the meeting that the magnates feared Mosely's work would make the race too one-sided.

LEAGUE HAS TWO IN FIRST DRAFT

Miller and O'Mara Taken by Big Leagues for Try Outs.

THREE DAYS MORE

Ollie O'Mara and Outfielder Miller, of the Fort Wayne and Evansville teams respectively, are the only two Central league players selected so far by the majors but there are three days more in which drafts may be made by the National and American leagues and there is a possibility that one or two others will be picked off before the allotted time of five days expires.

The fact that Brooklyn drafted Ollie O'Mara does not mean that his services will be lost to the Fort Wayne club. He is too young and inexperienced to land in fast company next season, and Claude H. Varnell may have a chance at him unless he has been taken with a view of paying some of the Brooklyn debts to class AA or A clubs.

Miller played here in the last series with the Evansville club and was obtained the latter part of August by purchase from one of the teams in the Cotton States league.

It was generally believed that Harry Martin, Ted Anderson and Grover Young would be taken from Fort Wayne, Tommy Mee and Steil from Grand Rapids, and Erve Martin from Dayton.

If there are no more inroads made on the local club by the class AA and A clubs Owner Claude Varnell will have a great start for the season of 1913.

COMMISSION BEGINS OTHER WORK.

Finished Up With Drafts on the First Day of Annual Session.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 16.—Having completed the work necessary in connection with the drafting of players by major league clubs from minor leagues, the national baseball commission today turned its attention to routine matters. One of the cases to come before the commission is that of Cy Morgan, who was sold to Cincinnati by Kansas City when it is alleged his arm was lame and he was utterly unfit for work. The price agreed upon for Morgan was $10,000, half of which has already been paid.

President August Herrmann, of the Cincinnati club, as soon as he heard of Morgan's alleged condition held up the second payment and brought the case to the attention of the commission with a view of obtaining a refund of the money already given for the player. President George Tebeau, of the Kansas City club, will appear before the commission to defend his action in the case and Morgan will also be heard by the commission. At a conference between President Bassett, of the Kitty league, and President Read, of the Ohio State league, an agreemnt was signed for a post-season series between the championship clubs of the two organizations. Paducah has the flag won in the Kitty league, while the winner in the Ohio State league has not as yet been decided. The proposed series will be commenced in Ohio State league territory on Sept. 23, two days after the season in that organization is over.

Quality is even more important than price in purchasing Furniture and Carpets, but you get equally as well taken care of in one direction as the other when you trade with the Foster Furniture Company.

REAL ESTATE MEN MEET.

Discuss Nickel Plate Shops and Arrange for Regular Meetings.

A meeting of the Fort Wayne Real Estate exchange was held Monday evening at the Commercial club, and R. H. Carlson, of the firm of Peddicord, Carlson & Smitley, was received as an associate member. The real estate men discussed the possibilities of inducing the Nickel Plate railroad to transfer its shops from Stony Island to this city, and voted to assist in any way possible, in a movement to land the shops for this city.

Arrangements were also made to hold a meeting of the directors every two weeks and the exchange as a whole, is to meet once each week.

Well, this is my final season and there isn't much use to stall,
They benched me along in April and I scarcely have played at all;
I kidded myself to thinking "I'm only a trifle stale
And I'll soon be wielding the willow and making the leather sail
Through the circumambient ozone the-way that I always could;"
Oh, I kidded myself to a fare-you-well, but it wasn't a bit of good;
For I knew I was stiff and heavy and getting a sluggish eye,
I was missing some easy grounders and letting the hot ones by;
I was puffing a lot on bases and this is an awful thing—
I could hear the tendons crackle whenever I swung my wing.
I tried to josh and to bluff myself, but it simply wouldn't do,
And I know it's only for old sake's sake, I've lasted the season through.
I know I'm done with the grand old game and I try to keep my cheer,
I've a pretty good pile in the savings bank so I haven't got much to fear;
But it's hard, blamed hard to quit the sport—the game that I loved to play,
And to settle down to a routine life and the grind of every day.
I'll miss the yells of the frantic fans and the roar of the shouting stands,
I'll miss the thrill when I stood at bat with the willow in my hands,
And the umpire's rasp and the coacher's shriek, and the pitcher's scornful smile,
When some one hollers, "Line it out—hey, line it out a mile!"
I'll miss the hot sun overhead and the smooth turf underfeet,
I'll miss the sweat that I used to get in the blaze of the summer heat;
The craft and skill and the luck and pluck that kept the interest warm,
And the blame and praise that a man will get in a big league uniform.
I'll miss it all (though I try to stall); I know I am down and out,
My eyes are bad and my arm is slow and I've lost my old time clout.
There's a tear drop on my cheekbone? Well, where is the guy will blame
A poor old broken has-been that's done with the grand old game!

ADENOIDS ARE A MENACE TO CHILDREN.

Babies and young children must be carefully watched for the growth of adenoids, which spoil the mental and physical life of a child. They usually result rom a succession of colds and throat irritations, and their presence is so productive of harm, that many school boards have an examining physician to detect them. The conditions that cause them may be easily avoided by careful parents. Quickly and thoroughly cure all colds and throat irritation by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and adenoids will not develop. Dreier Drug Co.—Adv.

LOTS OF RED TAPE TO GET U. S. FUNDS

Bankers Hold Meeting With Breen and Discuss Securities

AT CLEARING HOUSE

According to representatives of local banks, who attended a meeting this morning at the Clearing House association quarters on Court street, there is an unlimited amount of "red tape" attached to the distribution of the government's $300,000 to be sent to Fort Wayne, and one banker stated that the chances are the crop moving season will be ended by the time the local share of government funds has been finally received.

Nothing of importance took place at the meeting this morning and most of the time was spent in going over the lists of securities to be deposited by banks that are to take a portion of the fund. The list of securities will now be sent to Washington, D. C., then returned to Fort Wayne, when another meeting of bankers will be held with Hon. William P. Breen, who has been appointed as a representative of the treasury department in Fort Wayne. After all details have been finally completed securities will be deposited with the People's Loan and Trust company.

ROBBERS LOOT COUNTRY HOME

Residence of John Kress, Lafayette Township, is Robbed.

NO CLUE TO THIEVES

The country home of John Kress, residing in Lafayette township, on rural route 1, out of Roanoke, was entered by robbers some time last night and about $20 cash and a valuable gold watch were taken.

The robbers evidently entered and left the house by scaling the lightning rod and cutting the screen from an open window. The members of the family heard no one and did not know the premises were molested until this morning, when the money and watch were missed.

Report was made to Sheriff A. C. Gladieux, who sent Deputies Courdeway and Mills to investigate. The officers were unable to find any clue to the robbers.

MAMMA, DADDY AND CHILDREN ALL LOVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

Harmless "fruit laxative" cleanses stomach, liver and bowels.

A delicious cure for constipation, biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach, indigestion, coated tongue, sallowness—take "California Syrup of Figs." For the cause of all this distress lies in a torpid liver and sluggish bowels.

A tablespoonful tonight means all constipation, poison, waste matter, fermenting food and sour bile gently moved out of your system by morning without griping. Please don't think of "California Syrup of Figs" as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself or your children, because this delicious fruit laxative can not cause injury. Even a delicate child can take it as safely as a robust man. It is the most harmless, effective stomach, liver and bowel regulator and tonic ever devised.

Your only difficulty may be in getting the genuine; so ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." Say to your druggist, "I want only that made by the 'California Fig Syrup Company.'" This city has many counterfeit "fig syrups," so watch out. —Adv.

SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

OVER 900 AT THE MEETING

Wabash Safety Committeemen and Families Entertained at Montpelier.

BIG FOUR LAYING OFF SHOPMEN

Retrenchments Necessary on Account of the Floods of Last Spring.

The joint meeting of the safety committees of the Detroit and the Peru divisions of the Wabash at Montpelier, Ohio, yesterday was one of the most important meetings held since the inauguration of the safety first movement on that line. The business session was held in the afternoon and was followed by a ball game between Detroit and Montpelier which resulted in victory to the former by a scare of 7 to 4. Dinner was served between 6 and 7 o'clock and following the feast was the big meeting in the opera house, at which B. C. Winston, general claim agent of the Wabash, delivered an address on "Safety Always." Then the dance hall was thrown open and from 10 to 11:15 o'clock the younger portion of the people indulged in dancing. The special train left for their respective destinations at 11:15 and all of the people who attended the gathering were at home at 1 o'clock. It is estimated that when Mr. Winston arose to address the audience there were 900 people in the hall, fully one-half of them women. Detroit furnished the largest portion, it being estimated that the delegation sent from that city numbered 500. Fort Wayne did not turn out very well, there being only about fifteen of the Wabash employes from this city at the meeting. Toledo and the towns on the Chicago division each furnished about 150 people.

BIG FOUR RETRENCHMENT.

Because of the disastrous floods with their millions of dollars damage last March, the Big Four has ordered a retrenchment in shop expenses that has no precedent in the history of the property. More than 1,000 skilled workmen have been thrown out of employment on the Cleveland, Indianapolis and Cincinnati division alone, according to a telegram from Bellefontaine, Ohio. The shops in that city have suffered a reduction of 126 men. The general manager says it is impossible to say how long the suspended men will be out, but the cut in expenses cannot be avoided because so much money is being used in repairing flood damages.

TOOK ON SOME MORE MEN.

Four machinists' helpers and eight laborers were added to the force of workmen in the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning. One of the helpers is Matt Crowe, who resigned two or three months ago and went back to Pittsburg, where he worked in shops awhile. Oliver Itskin, Carl Horstman and C. Kruse are the other helpers. The latter is a furloughed fireman, who will return to the road as soon as the business increases to the point where he is needed. The eight laborers are foreigners.

HUNTING BOILERMAKERS.

Master Mechanic William Yergens, of the Erie shops at Huntington, was in the city yesterday afternoon and left over the Nickel Plate for Cleveland. Mr. Yergens is looking for boilermakers, but failed to find any unemployed in this city, hence his trip to Cleveland. Mr. Yergens was general foreman of the Wabash shops in this city eleven years ago, resigning to become master mechanic of the Erie shops.

WILL HOLD BAZAR.

Friendship division, No. 18, Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, will hold a bazar in November, having among other features six booths, representing the six working days of the week. It will be an unique and very interesting entertainment. Nothing but the general announcement can be made at present, as the details have not been worked out.

EARNINGS FALLING OFF.

Although the earnings for August this year were $89,000 short of the earnings of the Wabash during the same month last year, President F. A. Delano forecasts an increase which will bring the last half of the year up to that of 1912. The drought is responsible for the August falling off in traffic.

TO TALK TO LAMP MAKERS.

"Manufacture of Incandescent Lamps From an Engineer's Standpoint" will be the subject of a lecture before the General Electric Lamp club by Mr. Riddle, of Harrison, N. J., who is here on business connected with the lamp works. The club has extended an invitation to every employe of the lamp factory.

AGAIN CALLING CREWS.

Thomas Quinn, H. L. Mains and C. P. Dinklager are again calling engine crews for the Pennsylvania. During the busy season they were firing yard engines, but business has dropped down to a point where their services in that capacity are no longer needed.

BITTEN BY A BUG.

W. A. Fox, Pennsylvania fireman, is suffering from a wound on the arm inflicted by a bug Sunday. The arm is swollen to double its usual size and is very painful. He will be unable to work for a week or more.

C. A. PRITCHARD IN THE WEST.

Friends of Clyde A. Pritchard, Nickel Plate local ticket agent, are in receipt of news from him. He spent last week in Seattle, Wash., and is having a good time. Mr. Pritchard is on his annual vacation.

SHOPS ARE CRIPPLED.

The breaking of the steam piston in the big air compressor at the Pennsylvania shops has badly crippled the boiler plant and it may not be repaired for four or five days. About twenty-five men are off duty in the boiler shop as a result of the accident, there being no power to drive the air machinery.

FEDERAL INSPECTORS HERE.

Mr. Winterstein and Mr. Pfahler, federal boiler inspectors, are in the city and calling at the railway shops and round houses, inspecting stationary and locomotive boilers. They spent the morning at the Pennsylvania shops.

GOES EAST ON BUSINESS.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pennsylvania Engineer Henry Strasser and Fireman G. F. Flaig are sick and off duty.

M. S. Willson is in Decatur, Ind., today on business for the Fort Wayne Electric works.

H. C. Bedemeyer, H. P. Koehnlein and W. H. Hanke, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

Harry Emmerson, foreman of one of the departments of the Pennsylvania machine shop, is sick and off duty.

Machinist Barney Webber, who had been sick, resumed his duties at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

B. P. Willig resigned as a hammer boy at one of the big machines in the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop this morning.

J. A. Wyatt and O. A. Wyatt, boilermakers at the Pennsylvania shops, are off duty on account of the death of their sister.

General Foreman B. F. Sarver, of the Pennsylvania boiler shops, has returned from a business trip to Allegheny and Columbus.

H. A. Christen, who had his arms scalded two weeks ago, was able to report for duty at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Howard Gilb, clerk in the construction department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, is on duty again, after a week's vacation.

Night Foreman David Miller, of the Wabash machine shop, has gone to Crooked Lake for the last half of his two weeks' vacation.

A. C. Hoffman, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, went to Winchester, Ind., this morning. He is a witness in a law suit down there.

No. 513, Nickel Plate division to the G. I. A. of the B. L. E., will hold a pedro party at the hall corner of Cherry and Main streets this evening.

Frank J. Mannix, general foreman of railway shops at Sillshie, Tex., left Sunday for that city, after spending a two weeks' vacation in this city.

Machinist A. A. Arnold has returned from Tanawanda, N. Y. He spent three weeks there repairing a power plant that was installed by the Bass company a number of years ago.

Engineer A. M. Walsh has resumed work on the Pennsylvania, after a two weeks' vacation in the east. Engineer A. A. Miller, who was also off duty two weeks, resumed work this morning.

Chief Clerk J. B. Fowler, of the Pennsylvania storeroom, begins a two weeks' vacation tomorrow. He will spend the time at Pittsburg and Mrs. Fowler and John B. Fowler, jr., will accompany him.

Mrs. Larimore and Miss Muriel Larimore, wife and daughter, respectively, of Engineer Charles Larimore, of the Pennsylvania, returned home last night. They had been in California six weeks, visiting relatives and friends.

Stenographer J. C. Brake, of the Pennsylvania road foreman of engines' office, is on duty again, after a short absence. He had been on a short pleasure trip to Mackinac Island and was accompanied by Mrs. Brake and daughter.

Walter Neimeier, chief clerk for Foreman George A. Szink, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, began his annual vacation this morning. He will spend a part of it with relatives at Bremen, in the northern part of the state.

Because of some labor troubles in Indianapolis that required attention, William J. Pfleiger was unable to be here last night to deliver an address at the meeting of Friendship lodge, No. 70, I. A. M. He sent a telegram to that effect to President J. A. Lechler yesterday afternoon, and added that he would be pleased to come here and speak at a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Tielker, the former assistant foreman of the Pennsylvania freight house; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Miller, the former cashier's clerk of the same department, and their daughter, Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bordman, of the Brown Trucking company, have returned from Lake James where they occupied adjoining cottages and had a most enjoyable two weeks' outing.

Failing to secure steady and efficient help at Roanoke, the Wayne Knitting Mills threatens to remove its branch factory to some other point where labor conditions are more favorable. The factory employs seventy-five girls, who are chiefly daughters of farmers and who work only to make spending money. They are, it is alleged, independent and work or lay off at will, not taking the interests of the company into consideration. The Roanoke branch factory was established four years ago under the belief that girl labor would be plentiful there; instead it is more easily obtained in Fort Wayne.

CARVING 3,000 YEARS OLD.

Indian Arrow Head Indicated Rapids in Boise River.

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 16.—Excavators at the Arrowrock dam of the Payette-Boise project have uncovered the carving of a great arrowhead in the side of a granite cliff ninety feet below the surface of the present bend of the Boise river. The arrowhead is near what has been the bed of the old river, and those familiar with Indian legend believe it explains the name given by the red men to the dam site.

A towering cliff of granite rises 400 feet above the present bed of the Boise river, and anchored to the side of this will be the V-shaped concrete dam of the Payette-Boise project. To build this dam it was necessary for the engineers to excavate to bedrock, or the bottom of the old river. Great steam shovels were put to work in the excavation and when the bedrock of the old river was reached the earth crumbled from the mold of the great arrowhead in the side of the cliff.

Indians are believed to have chiselled the mark to indicate to canoeists the approach of dangerous rapids. Scientists say the carving probably is 3,000 years old.

WOMAN STARTS LAWSUIT.

Alleges Two Women Jointly Stole the Affections of Her Husband.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 16.—Alleging alienation of the affections of the Rev. John F. Cuthriell, her husband, Mrs. Bettie Faribolt Cuthrill, of Richmond, Va., sued Mrs. Helen M. Norris and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bertha Norris, of Easton, Md., for $50,000 jointly in the United States district court. The action was started in the federal court, as Mrs. Cuthriell and the defendants live in different states.

Two letters in the possession of Mrs. Cuthriell's lawyers and written to Mr. Cuthriell will be of importance in the case. One of them is said to have been written by Mrs. Helen M. Norris, who addressed the clergyman as "My Dear Son," and the other by her daughter-in-law, who addressed him as "My Dear Big Brother."

It is said that the defendants became acquainted with Mr. Cuthriell while he was stationed in Easton.

LET CONTRACT FOR CHURCH.

Work on New Jewish Synagogue to Be Started Immediately.

B'Nai Jacob congregation yesterday let the contract for its new synagogue to John Hagemann. The new edifice is to be erected at Monroe and Wayne streets, and the ground will be broken Wednesday morning. It is to cost approximately $12,000 when completed, and will be handsome and commodious. The contractor promises to have the structure completed in ninety days time.

Many Jewish people residing in smaller towns surrounding Fort Wayne have subscribed funds for the erection and maintenance of the new synagogue, and they will worship there. There are sixty families in Fort Wayne who are members of the congregation, and it is expected that 100 more families will join when the new building is ready for occupancy. In the basement will be established a children's Sabbath school room. The main floor and the balcony are to be constructed in the Gothic style of architecture.

Funds have been raised by individual subscriptions. Harry Friedmann has charge of the finances, and the congregation wishes that members of the church who desire to donate money to further the work leave it at the Hamilton National bank or with Mr. Friedmann.

FORT WAYNE PROOF

Should Convince Every Fort Wayne Reader.

The frank statement of a neighbor, telling the merits of a remedy,
Bids you pause and believe.
The same endorsement
By some stranger far away
Commands no belief at all.
Here's a Fort Wayne case.
A Fort Wayne citizen testifies.
Read and be convinced.

Mrs. C. M. Kelley, 305 Douglas avenue, Fort Wayne, Ind., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have done me a great deal of good when I have used them. Four years ago I had considerable trouble from my kidneys and after using several remedies without relief, I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills. They were just what I needed. They strengthened my kidneys and removed the pain. I can recommend this remedy to any one who has kidney complaint."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Kelley had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

$120,000 EARNED IN SCHOOL YEAR

Find College Students Are Self Supporting Men and Women.

REPORT IS SUBMITTED

New York, Sept. 16.—Posing for artists, acting as elevator operators, tending furnaces and serving as clerks in summer hotels and as physicians at summer camps were but a few of the ways the Columbia university students discovered for earning $120,000 through the last academic year. This is a highwater mark for the students.

The report on the earnings of the five hundred self-supporting students at Columbia for the academic term was made by the secretary of the university appointments office. This office assisted in placing students for 1,88: places, which netted them $57,192.74. The balance of the earnings the students made by work found independently.

Barnard girls served as tutors, acted as stenographers and in some instances served as cashiers in some of the downtown restaurants. One girl was a telephone operator.

The students in the graduate schools were at the top of the list, with total earnings of $27,811.50. The university helped them to the extent of $10,791.76. The highest average for the year was made by the students in the law school, sixty-six of whom earned with the university's help $8,854.37, an average of $136.15 each.

In Barnard college fifteen students earned $841, or an average of nearly $50 each, while in Teachers' college twenty-eight students averaged $68.71.

Since the school year of 1898-99, when the Columbia authorities began to make a record of student earning, the undergraduates on Morningside Heights have earned $1,113,587.28.

During the summer the undergraduates in the college were the best money-getters. By themselves the Columbia college boys earned $7,307.34, and with the aid of the office, $5,233.10, a total of $12,540.40. The engineering students, who in number are almost as many as the Columbia college youths earned $5,882.08. Fifteen Barnard girls turned in reports, showing total earnings of $1,198. In Teachers' college the women students earned $1,540.80. The other totals were: Medicine, $1,180.85; architecture, $1,035.50, and extension, $77[illegible].

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Wheat eased off today under selling due in part to a liberal increase of the European visible supply. The opening was the same as last night to ⅛@¼c lower, and there was some additional decline.

The close was firm at ⅛@¼c to ½c net advance.

Widespread rain made the corn market heavy because of the benefit to pasturage. The market started ⅜c to ½c off and seemed unable to rally.

The Iowa state report also had a bullish effect. Closing figures were steady, ½@⅝c to ⅝c over last night.

Oats displayed sympathy with corn weakness. Pit speculators did most of the selling.

Provisions held about steady, influenced chiefly by the hog market.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Sept 16.—Active buying of Reading and the Copper shares caused substantial advances in these shares at the opening today. Reading and Amalgamated rose a point. Canadian Pacific also was in demand and gained 1¼. Changes elsewhere were small but advances were general among the leaders.

The absorptive capacity of the market was tested again today, through liberal selling for both accounts, which was stimulated by higher prices. Offerings were taken without serious effect on values, conveying an impression that the present speculative movement was being kept well in hand. The effect on the money market of the recent enlargement in activity was a matter of concern to traders. Increasing firmness of loans for all periods pointed to the difficulty which would be encountered in financing a broad speculative movement. Bonds were easier.

The market closed heavy. Stocks were under steady pressure in the closing hours, resulting in a pretty thorough obliteration of the gains, except where advances had been exceptional.

JURY INDICTS COLLEGE HEAD

President Hanley to Answer for "Spanking" Aged Father.

CAME AS A SURPRISE

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 16. The Vigo county grand jury has returned an indictment charging Rev. Elijah A. Hanley, president of Franklin college, with assault and battery on his father, Calvin Hanley. The assault is alleged to have been committed at the home of the elder in Middletown, September 11. Sheriff Shea communicated with Rev. C. R. Parker, of Terre Haute, member of the Franklin college board, and received assurance Dr. Hanley would report when wanted.

According to the story told neighbors by Calvin Hanley, his son took offense at a joking remark he had made to his daughter-in-law and dragging him from his chair struck and beat him severely. The aged man summoned a physician and at first it was believed his injuries were serious, but later it developed that he was not badly hurt. Dr. Hanley, while in Indianapolis Saturday, issued a statement in which he gave his version of the affair and said that he had "switched and spanked" his father for a remark made to a brother's wife and because of ill treatment of his mother.

In ending his statement, President Hanley said he now felt that he should have taken a hand in the matter years ago.

President Hanley returned to Terre Haute Saturday night and visited his father's home, where it is said a reconciliation took place. The father asked forgiveness for his unkindness to the members of his family, while the son knelt before his parent and asked his blessing, said a friend who was present.

When the reconciliation was effected a member of the board of trustees of Franklin college announced that the affair was closed as far as the board was concerned and expressed hope that the matter would not be taken before the grand jury.

Rev. Hanley arrived here Tuesday morning and surrendered to the sheriff on the warrant issued for his arrest. He was accompanied by Rev. Clark R. Parker of this city, a member of the executive board of Franklin college, and Gaylord Hawkins, of the law firm of Hawkins & Hawkins, Indianapolis. Through Attorney W. J. Whitaker, of this city, he notified the sheriff's office of his desire to acknowledge service on the warrant. The sheriff served the warrant in person. Rev. Hanley gave bond in the sum of $300, with R. L. Alder, John G. Dobbs and Isaac T. Pierson as sureties. All are prominent members of the First Baptist church here and their combined wealth would require six figures to express. The bond requires the indicted man to appear in court on Sept. 16.

Redfern Corsets

Perfection in figure, distinction in poise and bearing, are attained only by perfect fitting corsets. No woman knows this better than the one who has worn the wrong kind.

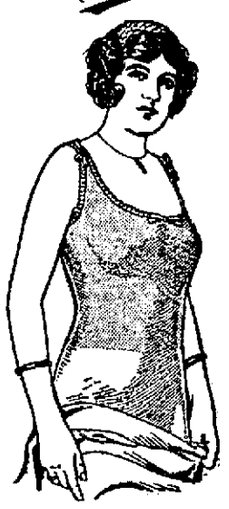
The fit of the gown depends on the corset as much as on the skill of the Modiste, and unless the corset is the right sort, and fitted by experts the work of the modiste may be wasted. The REDFERN corset insures satisfaction and perfection of figure as well as absolute comfort at all times. Many a woman has never fully realized the possibilities of her figure until she wore a REDFERN. You should try it also. We have also a full line of the best Brassieres money and skill can produce. When worn with these corsets, the line of the figure is unbroken, the line of true art and present fashion. All styles from slender to stout. Light, strong and trimmed either daintily or exquisitely according to your desires.

We cordially invite Fair Vistors to stop at the Corset Section and see the new Fall models. A special fitting will be given if desired, and all corsets of the Redfern make carry our unqualified guarantee as to both wear and comfort.

$3.50 to $8.50

High Grade Underwear

Richelieu



Among our many brands of highest grade Underwear, the Richelieu stands out prominently. It is made of specially combed, long fibre cotton, twisted into yarns that while retaining all the luxurious softness that belong to this cotton, are so firm and long lived that the underwear gives the maximum satisfaction. Another feature exclusive with this underwear is the thin zone at the waist with top and lower part heavy or light from the hips up and heavy from the hips down. This is secured by means of a special weaving machine. The thin zone makes for greater comfort and less bulk under the corset. No other underwear has successfully solved this problem. We carry this in a medium weight for winter. It has proved its worth.

Union Suits ..... $1.00, $1.25 and $2.00
Vests and Drawers, all shapes ..... 50c and 65c

Other High-Grade Underwear Found Here: Stretton, American, Merode, Munsing. All sizes and All Weights. The latter Two in Splendid All-Wool Weights for Children. All Prices.

UNDERWEAR FOR MEN

This means also for boys. No men's Furnishing Store anywhere has ever shown a wider range of the very best underwear for men, than can be seen right now in our Men's Section. Every make of GOOD underwear, worthy a place in a store that really cares for quality, is represented, and the prices are lower than you have been asked for inferior garments.

These are Union Suit prices. Wherever they are made in two-piece suits the price is the same per suit. We have the same splendid makes in heavy and medium weight cotton, for those who cannot wear the wool. Prices are proportionately low.

PICKPOCKETS TURN TO PENS.

"Watch Your Fountain Pen" is Now Warning in New York.

New York, Sept. 15.—With 90 per cent. of the watches in New York so scratched up with pawnbrokers' marks that they are no longer persona grata at the leading "fences" of the city, youthful pickpockets who have long been searching for a new line have decided upon fountain pens as the most profitable merchandise, and the Manhattan and Brooklyn entrances to the Brooklyn bridge as the most fertile field. Within the last week more than a score of fountain pens have been lifted from the pockets of pedestrians. Thousands of persons walk across the Brooklyn bridge every day. As they are largely business men, clerks and stenographers employed in the big down town office buildings and addicted to the fountain pen habit, there could be no better place for the work. The police are thinking of putting up a sign: "Watch Your Fountain Pen. Not Responsible for Pens Unless Checked." One Flatbush man reported to the police that his pen, which was secured by a patent clip to his pocket, had been deftly lifted out as he looked at it by an urchin who disappeared in the bridge crowd. He said the lad evidently had a partner, for a boy who had seen the operation directed him in the direction in which the thief had not gone. The police advised him to carry the pen concealed in an inner pocket and then watch it as carefully as he would his watch, for dozens of similar complaints have been made during the last week.
